AFLDS along with several other freedom advocacy groups have teamed up to create a map, the Freedom Connect Map, that is freely accessible online and would provide people with a user-friendly platform where they can source state and national freedom resources, including event calendars in one place.

In order to qualify for the Freedom Connect Map, the group/organization must believe in the constitution and the Bill of Rights as the supreme governing body. They agree that the US is a constitutional republic that shall not be dictated by government overreach.

- SOURCE and PROMOTE EVENTS and PETITIONS Also forward to state leader for Keep Freedom Coalition
 - a. Petitions – important as ammo for the fight both locally and national
 - b. Events – monitor local/state/regional freedom event boards, great ways to keep people involved, inspired and motivated.
- Research/updates for KEEP FREEDOM COALITION (email leads to state leader)
- ATTEND MEETINGS for both CC and local_freedom groups remote/in-person.
 - a. Help expand national freedom CC network the AFLDS member channel. From there, either state leaders and/or an administrator will forward/promote the event as needed.

Alert channel posts to the discussion channel?

Unfortunately, due to the way that Telegram is formatted, any post to the state Alert Channel is simultaneously posted to the associated discussion channel. This does add more noise to an already busy page, but utilizing pins is a great way to help keep pertinent posts more easily accessible. In the future, as more platforms open up we may move to a more appropriate social media interface or Telegram will update and these inconvenient nuances will be resolved.

How should meetings and networking be organized?

Grassroots. No standards for meetings...YET! Use your discernment on what will work best for your region. Weed out and promote the leaders, doers, and warriors. ENCOURAGE REGULAR MEETINGS! Zoom meetings/In-person meetings/meeting space?

Meeting turns into a complaint session – WHAT ARE WE GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

Will there be a Regional state list be available?

Yes! A list will be available that will delegate which states are included in each regional group including the state leader contacts.

Where do we find events? Will the Keep Freedom Coalition “Freedom Connect Map” be accessible?

Researching local Freedom/Patriot group channels, social media pages, websites, event calendars. Utilize CC volunteers to help research and send in local events as they are discovered.

The Freedom Connect Map will launch ASAP. Therefore, we need the help of the CC! The more leads and resources we can pull in the faster the map can launch.
