

Lucy and us.

02/24/2024

I was going to write a book called "Monozygotic". Now I'm writing a book about my life. The best moments of my life started when I met Jaime. I am living with him on East 10th street, NYC. East Village. Lucy, our one year old Mini Schnauzer. Our daughter. Literally. I am grateful and happy to say, in love.

I am now calling this book, or journal. Lucy and Us. Thank you Marley and Me. You've inspired me. Dogs love you, to share our love with Lucy is bliss. I've destroyed (ripped) three copies already. Drafts. This is the best way to write. Lucy has lived in a room with us since she was a baby. Now we live at East 10th street in the East village. Our first apartment together. Home. my family. We've taken two vacations to Las Vegas and on our third, who knows maybe we'll get drunk and get married. Wouldn't it be nice?
