WHAT IS RACC?

The Regional Admission Counselors of California (RACC) is an organization comprised of 175 admission professionals from nearly 120 institutions outside of California who work with students, their families, and counselors throughout California. All of these out-of-state institutions are NACAC and/or WACAC members. They have dedicated the necessary resources for a regional office to serve California schools and provide information about educational opportunities outside of California.

In addition to participating in your school, district, or organization's outreach programs, RACC has developed signature programs, including:

Promoting Out-of-State Educational Opportunities for Californians

This program includes a short presentation about the many advantages that exist at out-of-state institutions for California students and a mini-college fair. In addition, each participating RACC member presents a brief institutional overview. This program typically takes place in the evening, allowing parents to attend.

RACC Mini-College Fairs

You provide the tables and location (such as a classroom, library, quad, gymnasium, or cafeteria) and the RACC members will bring their table banners, colorful materials, and plenty of smiles.

RACC Application Boot Camps

Our newest service has become a much talked-about resource. Students have an opportunity to work in small groups with an admission officer to polish their essays and interview skills. We often add other topics as requested by the high school. Some of these topics include Early Action vs Regular Decision, the importance of demonstrated interest, how to write a good resume, etc.

RACC Case Studies

RACC has created three terrific applicants as examples to help guide students and parents through the Admission Committee stage of the application cycle. Admission professionals who have read thousands of applications, letters of recommendations, and essays developed these applicants. Each of our applicants has strengths and weaknesses, which with the guidance of a group facilitator, really help the participants better understand the application process. Our goal is to have the students and their parents experience a less stressful application process.

RACC Speakers

Additionally, many RACC members are available to speak or present on a variety of topics at college nights, parent nights, admissions panels, or individual classes (such as Avid or Upward Bound). Some of these topics include: out-of-state college options, how to write a college essay, ACT/SAT general information and strategies, choosing a major, financial aid, selecting a college, WUE, the differences between a public and private university, the importance of demonstrated interest, how to get the most out of college tours, how to rock your admissions interview, etc.

 Glasgow, Scotland  gla.ac.uk

Founded in 1451, the University of Glasgow is the fourth oldest university in the English-Speaking world. For more than five centuries, we have been pushing the boundaries of what is possible, nurturing the talents of seven Nobel laureates, one Prime Minister and Scotland's current First Minister. International students fit right in here. More than 30% of our population comes from outside of the UK, with typically more than 1,000 students travelling to us from Canada and the USA each year. Our mission is to continue to be a world-class and progressive university that is dedicated to bringing inspiring people together to change the world.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

 Baltimore, MD

 loyola.edu

Loyola's time-tested, distinctly taught Jesuit education founded in the liberal arts helps students master the tools and develop the traits they'll need to learn, lead, and serve in today's diverse and ever-changing world. A Loyola education is an active transformation: it's directly taught, personally experienced, deeply understood, and put into living practice. Loyola deploys its full resources to ensure that these transformative experiences are accessible to all students – wherever their minds and hearts lead. Our consistently small class sizes, faculty mentorship, practical extensions of classroom learning, ability to design custom curricula, and unparalleled career resources are distinct features of a Loyola education. The guidance and encouragement of tenured professors push students to the limits of their intellect and imagination, demonstrate how to absorb, engage with, and respond to new knowledge, and teach them how to face today's hurdles – while preparing them to leap them on their own in the future.

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

 Newark, DE

 udel.edu

The University of Delaware is the flagship institution of the state and traces its roots to 1743. A suburban campus located halfway between New York City, Washington D.C., and Baltimore and a 30-minute drive from Philadelphia, UD's location helps designate it as an east-coast classic. UD is a land-grant, sea-grant, and space-grant institution and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies UD as a research university with very high research activity—a designation accorded less than 3% of U.S. colleges and universities. UD ranks among the nation's top 100 universities in federal R&D support for science and engineering. With 70% of the undergraduate population coming from out-of-state, students can be directly admitted into any of the 150+ programs. UD is ranked ninth in the country for colleges with the best four-year graduation rate, which is 73% (Chronicle of Higher Education).

Columbia College Chicago is a school for creatives, offering a distinctive experience that blends media and digital arts, visual arts, performing arts, music and sound, and communication and writing with a liberal arts and business-based core curriculum. Located in the heart of downtown Chicago's Cultural Mile, our students are expected to contribute to the life and the culture of the city of Chicago and its creative communities. We pride ourselves on being a blue-collar creative community – one where hard work, humility, and hustle is the everyday tempo. We think difference is an essential ingredient to the creative process and that diversity, equity, and inclusion are central to collaboration and interdisciplinarity. From day one, our students are hands-on in their creative interests and collaborate to continue building their bodies of work.

DENISON UNIVERSITY

 Granville, OH

 denison.edu

As one of the nation's leading liberal arts colleges, Denison boasts generations of students who can attest to its effect on their lives. Each would cite a different reason because Denison's liberal arts tradition and residential community create a college of endless personal possibilities. At Denison, students have to step up – there's no hiding in the back of a large lecture hall, no anonymity. They matter as individuals, and they are prepared for lives of consequence by the best faculty. And learning reaches outside the classrooms, where students live and learn together, and where they embrace ideals of integrity, diversity, and respect for each other and the environment. The outcome is an old term that we take for granted: "well-rounded." But consider what it means: Denison graduates have a voice. They can speak, write, collaborate, innovate, take responsibility, solve, adapt, and learn.

Points of Pride

1. We have two vibrant campuses: the urban neighborhood of Lincoln Park and the hustle-bustle of The Loop. Public transportation connects them in 15 minutes.
2. The Chicago Quarter class helps all freshmen become familiar with Chicago history and neighborhoods, public transit, and DePaul resources.
3. DePaul's 32,000 sq. ft. professional production facility at Cinespace Chicago Film Studios allows film & television students to learn on industry-standard equipment steps away from high-profile productions.

HILLSDALE COLLEGE

 Hillsdale, MI

 hillsdale.edu

Hillsdale College is an independent, private, Christian non-sectarian, classical liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. With its founding in 1844, Hillsdale became the first U.S. college to prohibit discrimination based on sex, race, and creed. Today, Hillsdale College remains true to its mission statement by foregoing all federal and state funding, providing entirely private financial aid and scholarships to 97% of its students. At Hillsdale, each student spends one-third of their time in a classical liberal arts core curriculum, which includes courses in Great Books, the U.S. Constitution, philosophy, theology, physics, biology, history, chemistry, logic, fine arts, and mathematics. Hillsdale's most popular majors include economics, biology, history, english, mathematics, politics, and financial management. Students also sign an Honor Code, committing themselves to honesty, study, service, respect, and self-government.

ILLINOIS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Chicago, IL

web.iit.edu

Illinois Tech is a STEM-focused University with about 3,000 undergraduates. We offer strong scholarships (most students receive between $20,000 to $30,000 per year), thriving student clubs, Division III athletics, and an urban setting. Illinois Tech is Chicago's only tech-focused university offering more than 40 undergraduate degrees in a vibrant urban setting. We are most well-known for engineering and architecture, but you'll find students in the human sciences, applied technology, traditional lab sciences, and business at Illinois Tech. We are a very experiential learning focused university with a robust undergraduate research program, internships/co-ops, and a special program called IPRO allowing all undergraduates to have hands-on problem solving experiences.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

 Bloomington, IL

 iwu.edu

Illinois Wesleyan University is an awesome place for students who have passions in multiple areas and want to break through the norm of a college experience. We offer intensive programs in STEM, business, nursing, humanities and social sciences, and the fine arts. IWU is committed to social justice and environmental sustainability. Ranked 7th in the Nation for job placement, we prepare our students to do well as citizens and in their careers. We are a small school of 1,600 students on campus. Yet we are actually located in a big college town, with Illinois State University just two miles away. All of our programs allow for independent research opportunities. We are also a very interdisciplinary university, so if you want to major across disciplines you will find support for it here. IWU is a place where people are willing to say "yes" to students' crazy ideas and passions.

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

📍 South Orange, NJ shu.edu

One of the country's leading Catholic universities, Seton Hall University has been developing students in mind, heart, and spirit since 1856. Offering more than 90 rigorous majors, Seton Hall's academic excellence has been singled out for distinction by The Princeton Review, U.S. News and World Report, and Bloomberg Businessweek. Seton Hall's 58-acre main campus is located in the quaint town of South Orange, New Jersey, only 14 miles from Manhattan. The University's nationally-ranked School of Law is located in nearby Newark, New Jersey. Our new Interprofessional Health Sciences (IHS) campus, situated in the towns of Clifton and Nutley, New Jersey, opened in July 2018. The IHS campus houses Seton Hall's College of Nursing, School of Health and Medical Sciences, and the new Hackensack Meridian School of Medicine at Seton Hall University. The Buccino Leadership Institute offers leadership programs in Business (ranked #1 in the nation for five years in a row) and in all schools and colleges throughout the university.

UNION COLLEGE

 Schenectady, NY

 union.edu/admissions/union

For more than two centuries, Union College has been defining – and continually redefining – what it means to provide a liberal arts education. Since 1795, we’ve been challenging convention, blurring boundaries, and shaking up traditional thinking. We are inspired by a bold, enduring vision: Developing every student to lead with wisdom, empathy, and courage, in ways large and small, now and across multiple tomorrows. The first planned campus in the United States, Union College is a highly selective, private, residential, liberal arts college with engineering that is consistently ranked among the nation’s top colleges. Set on 100 acres in downtown Schenectady, NY, including eight acres of formal gardens and woodland known as Jackson’s Garden, Union is within easy reach of New York City, Boston, and Montreal, rural areas, and outdoor recreation.

Georgia Tech attracts students looking for a rigorous academic environment combined with a vibrant and full campus life experience. Students in all six colleges (Business, Computing, Design, Engineering, Liberal Arts, and Science) can easily pursue various internship, co-op, study abroad, and research opportunities, and the vast majority of students will participate in at least one of these co-curricular options before graduating. Additionally, student innovation is strongly supported through programs like Create-X and the Venture Prize. Our traditional, 400-acre campus, located in the heart of Atlanta, provides an environment for students to create community, as well as access to a major urban center. Our city setting lends itself well not only to business connections and start-up environments, but also a plethora of music, arts, sports, and cultural experiences.

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

 Baton Rouge, LA  lsu.edu

Located in what is both a capital city and college town, while also being just an hour's drive from New Orleans and Cajun Country, LSU provides a unique blend of academic excellence and cultural experience that shapes future generations of leaders. With its roots in both French and Spanish heritage and a strong influence from the Acadians (known today as the Cajuns) the state has a colorful history and flair. The language, food, music, festivals (such as Mardi Gras), outdoor activities, and the varying backgrounds of its people create a fascinating melting pot of cultures. History runs deep, as there are more sites in Louisiana on the National Register of Historic Places than in any other state.

The University of Florida is the flagship university for the state of Florida, located in Gainesville. UF is one of only 17 U.S. universities to share the distinction of land-grant, sea-grant, and space-grant status. UF is one of only six universities in the country with colleges of law, medicine, engineering, agriculture, and veterinary medicine on one central campus. There are sixteen colleges within our university system that offer over 120 undergraduate majors and 200 graduate majors. Undergraduate students are able to participate in research at UF. None of our majors are impacted and we do not admit based on major. Whatever you've got your sights set on, that's merely the beginning. As a Gator you'll learn to see beyond the horizon. We measure success not in individual achievement, but where you go from there. Because when reaching your goals is just the starting point, there's no end to what Gators can accomplish.

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

 Pullman, WA

 wsu.edu

In a charming college town nestled in a region of Eastern Washington known as the Palouse, you'll find a stunning little college town that is home to Washington State University. Students of all backgrounds and interests can be spotted on our campus with the typical student being engaged in multiple areas. There are countless research opportunities with limited competition; all students will have research access if they wish. Last year, WSU offered thousands of student leadership positions, hundreds of local volunteer projects, dozens of guest lecturers, and ample school spirit year-round. WSU is a great option for any student wanting to live the traditional college experience. Football games turning the town into a frenzy, free movies at the Union building, guest lectures and career fairs, free coffee during finals week, Greek Life, student clubs – it's how our students explore their interests and expand their passions.
