2 Peter 1:1-11

God's Precious Promises: You Have An Eternal Spiritual Account

INTRODUCTION

Many times, we as Christians act and live as though we are spiritually bankrupt. Many times, we don't stop to consider how blessed and rich we are in the spiritual realm. You may not be so wealthy from the material side but from the spiritual side you are rich. Being a Christian entitles us to so many benefits that are not just for the here and now but for all eternity. We are in the family of God. We are saved. We are justified. We are sanctified. Furthermore, we will one day be glorified which will take us out of this world of suffering to a home of eternal bliss. Peter informs us of the precious promises that God has in store for us. These promises are not empty; but they are guaranteed by a God who has never broken not one of his promises. You and I have a spiritual account that cannot be compared to any account on earth, not even by the wealthiest person in the world. In our lesson today we are going to take a close look at God's precious promises and also the process by which we grow into receiving those promises.

We stand up, fall, stand up, fall, take a step, fall, take a couple of steps, fall, walk a little better, wobble a bit, fall, run, and finally, eventually fly.”
- Geri Larkin -

Sure Sign of Spiritual Growth:
You realize how challenging it is to change yourself and you begin to understand what little chance you have in trying to change others.

God's promises are not fortune cookies. We do not use them in order to get a spiritual fix for the day.

1. Spiritual growth is a sure sign of life.
2. Christians are fully equipped with all we need to grow.
3. Christian growth is not automatic it depends on prayer, service, study and putting God's word in practice.
4. You need to regularly check your spiritual account to know what you have.
5. God's promises are signed and sealed and will be delivered.
6. As God equips us for his service, we should serve joyfully.
- 7.
