LESSON 14

Know That After Death Comes The Resurrection Pt. 1

John 5:28-29, 1Cor. 15:19-28, Heb.9:27

INTRODUCTION

At the graveside of our friends and love-ones the minister will conduct a committal service and say, “Forasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to take out of this world the soul and spirit of our deceased love one _____ we therefore commit his/her body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes dust to dust.” Over the years I have sadly recited those words hundreds of times. Sometimes I have cited them at the services of close friends and family members. It is a sad time to see your love ones depart. We live. We work. We play. We laugh. Then we die. The big question is; Is this all? If death is the end what is the use living for God? If death is the end what is the use doing good?

Although we do not know what is on the other side, we believe what the Bible says about it and look forward to making the transition. Jesus said in John 11:25-26, “I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.” Job did not know the truths of the gospel of Christ. He lived before Christ came to earth; but Job had a hope of resurrection. Job said in Job 19:25-27, “For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.” In our lesson today we are going to take a close look at what happens when we die according to the Bible.

OPENING DISCUSSION QUESTION: Have you ever had a brush sure with death, and if so how did affect the way you live?

MEMORY VERSES: "But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead."
 -----1 Corinthians 15:20-21

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.-----John 5:28-29

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. 27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. 28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: --Hebrews 9:27
