STEPHENSON COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY CONVENTION RESULTS

UNANIMOUS DECISION FOR STEPHENSON DEMOCRATS

The Stephenson County Democrats held their Convention Tuesday evening to elect officers for the coming two year terms. The County Party has updated their bylaws recently to reflect better defined responsibilities of its Vice Chairs. The officers were elected with a unanimous vote signifying a unified sense of purpose within the County Party.

The County Party started in meeting with a moment of reflection on the recent tragedy with storms in Stephenson County and specifically the tornado that touched down in Lena. The Party voted to donate $500 to through the Northwest Illinois Community Foundation where it will be matched for the needs of the Lena community.

Jody Coss, reelected as the Party Chair said, "I am truly grateful for the confidence we have in our whole team here. From our fundraiser this Friday to supporting our candidates to our Lunch Club, we work well together and get an incredible amount of work done."

The election results were:

Jody Coss was reelected as Chair

Kevin Lamm was reelected as Election and Candidate Vice Chair

Lisa Stich was reelected as Events and Fundraising Vice Chair

Valerie Landwehr was elected as Outreach Vice Chair

Sheryl Pitts Wolff was reelected as Secretary

Shannon Muick was elected as Treasurer
