Grenada Learning and Leadership Academy (GLLA)

PRESS RELEASE
August 17, 2021

The Grenada Learning and Leadership Academy (GLLA) has launched its 2021 Scholarship Program.

Seven (7) Grenadian students were selected and awarded tuition scholarships to pursue their program of studies at the T.A Marryshow Community College (TAMCC) and the New Life Organization (NEWLO). The scholarships will begin in the 2021/2022 academic year.

This Scholarship is a tuition only scholarship, at the selected institution, for a period of two years. By accepting the scholarship, the scholars agree to meet and maintain satisfactory academic standards of their institution. Other requirements agreed to by the students: they will practice good citizenship with active involvement in community services; maintenance of good conduct within the school community; provide the term reports to the Scholarship Committee no more than one week after the report has been received; and at the end of the school year, the Recipients will meet with the Scholarship Committee during the vacation period.

The GLLA Scholarship Committee will engage the recipients in a mentorship compact.

Any misconduct by the recipient, which continues after three warnings by the Scholarship Committee, may result in the scholarship being discontinued.

Beginning with the second half of the first year, if the Recipient receives two consecutive unsatisfactory reports, after being warned by the Scholarship Committee, and the holder shows no improvement in performance, the scholarship may be discontinued.

The Recipient is expected to participate in activities with other Alumni of the scholarship program sponsored by GLLA. Matters relevant to the scholarship or to the Recipient, relating to the scholarship; will be addressed by Scholarship Committee.

The Scholarship Committee comprised of:

| Amb. Denis G. Antoine | Akarda Ventour | Nichole D. Duncan |
| Founder / Director | Resident Director | Director |
