Wesley, Serenity & Sky

A Family Trip to Disneyland in Paris

For Valentine's Day this year, Wesley decided to take his two favorite girls to Paris. With Sky getting older, he wanted to give her an experiences she'd be sure to remember to years to come; and he was holding on to the hope that he'd always be Sky's number one Valentine.

Serenity loved being back in Paris, since that's where they spent their honeymoon. The loving family of three spent time enjoying the streets of Paris; shopping, eating, and exploring. However, they stayed up a little past Sky's bedtime to get a night time picture in front of the infamous Eiffel Tower.

The next day, they went to Disneyland in Paris and had a blast! Sky was so excited to see some of her favorite characters! Wesley and Serenity loved watching Sky enjoy herself in a new place and they were happy to make such great memories together as a family. Being in such a 'magical' place brought out the 'kid' in Wesley and Serenity, too!

They took plenty of photos, played games, enjoyed rides and ate more than their fill of ice-cream. Wesley and Serenity had never seen Sky so excited, and they knew they'd need to plan another family trip soon!

The family of three spent hours in the park until the sun began to go down. They stayed to watch the fireworks, and soon after, they retired to their hotel room to get some rest from such a full and adventurous day.

Later that night...

However, before the night could officially end, Wesley and Serenity enjoyed some adult time together once Sky was asleep for the night.

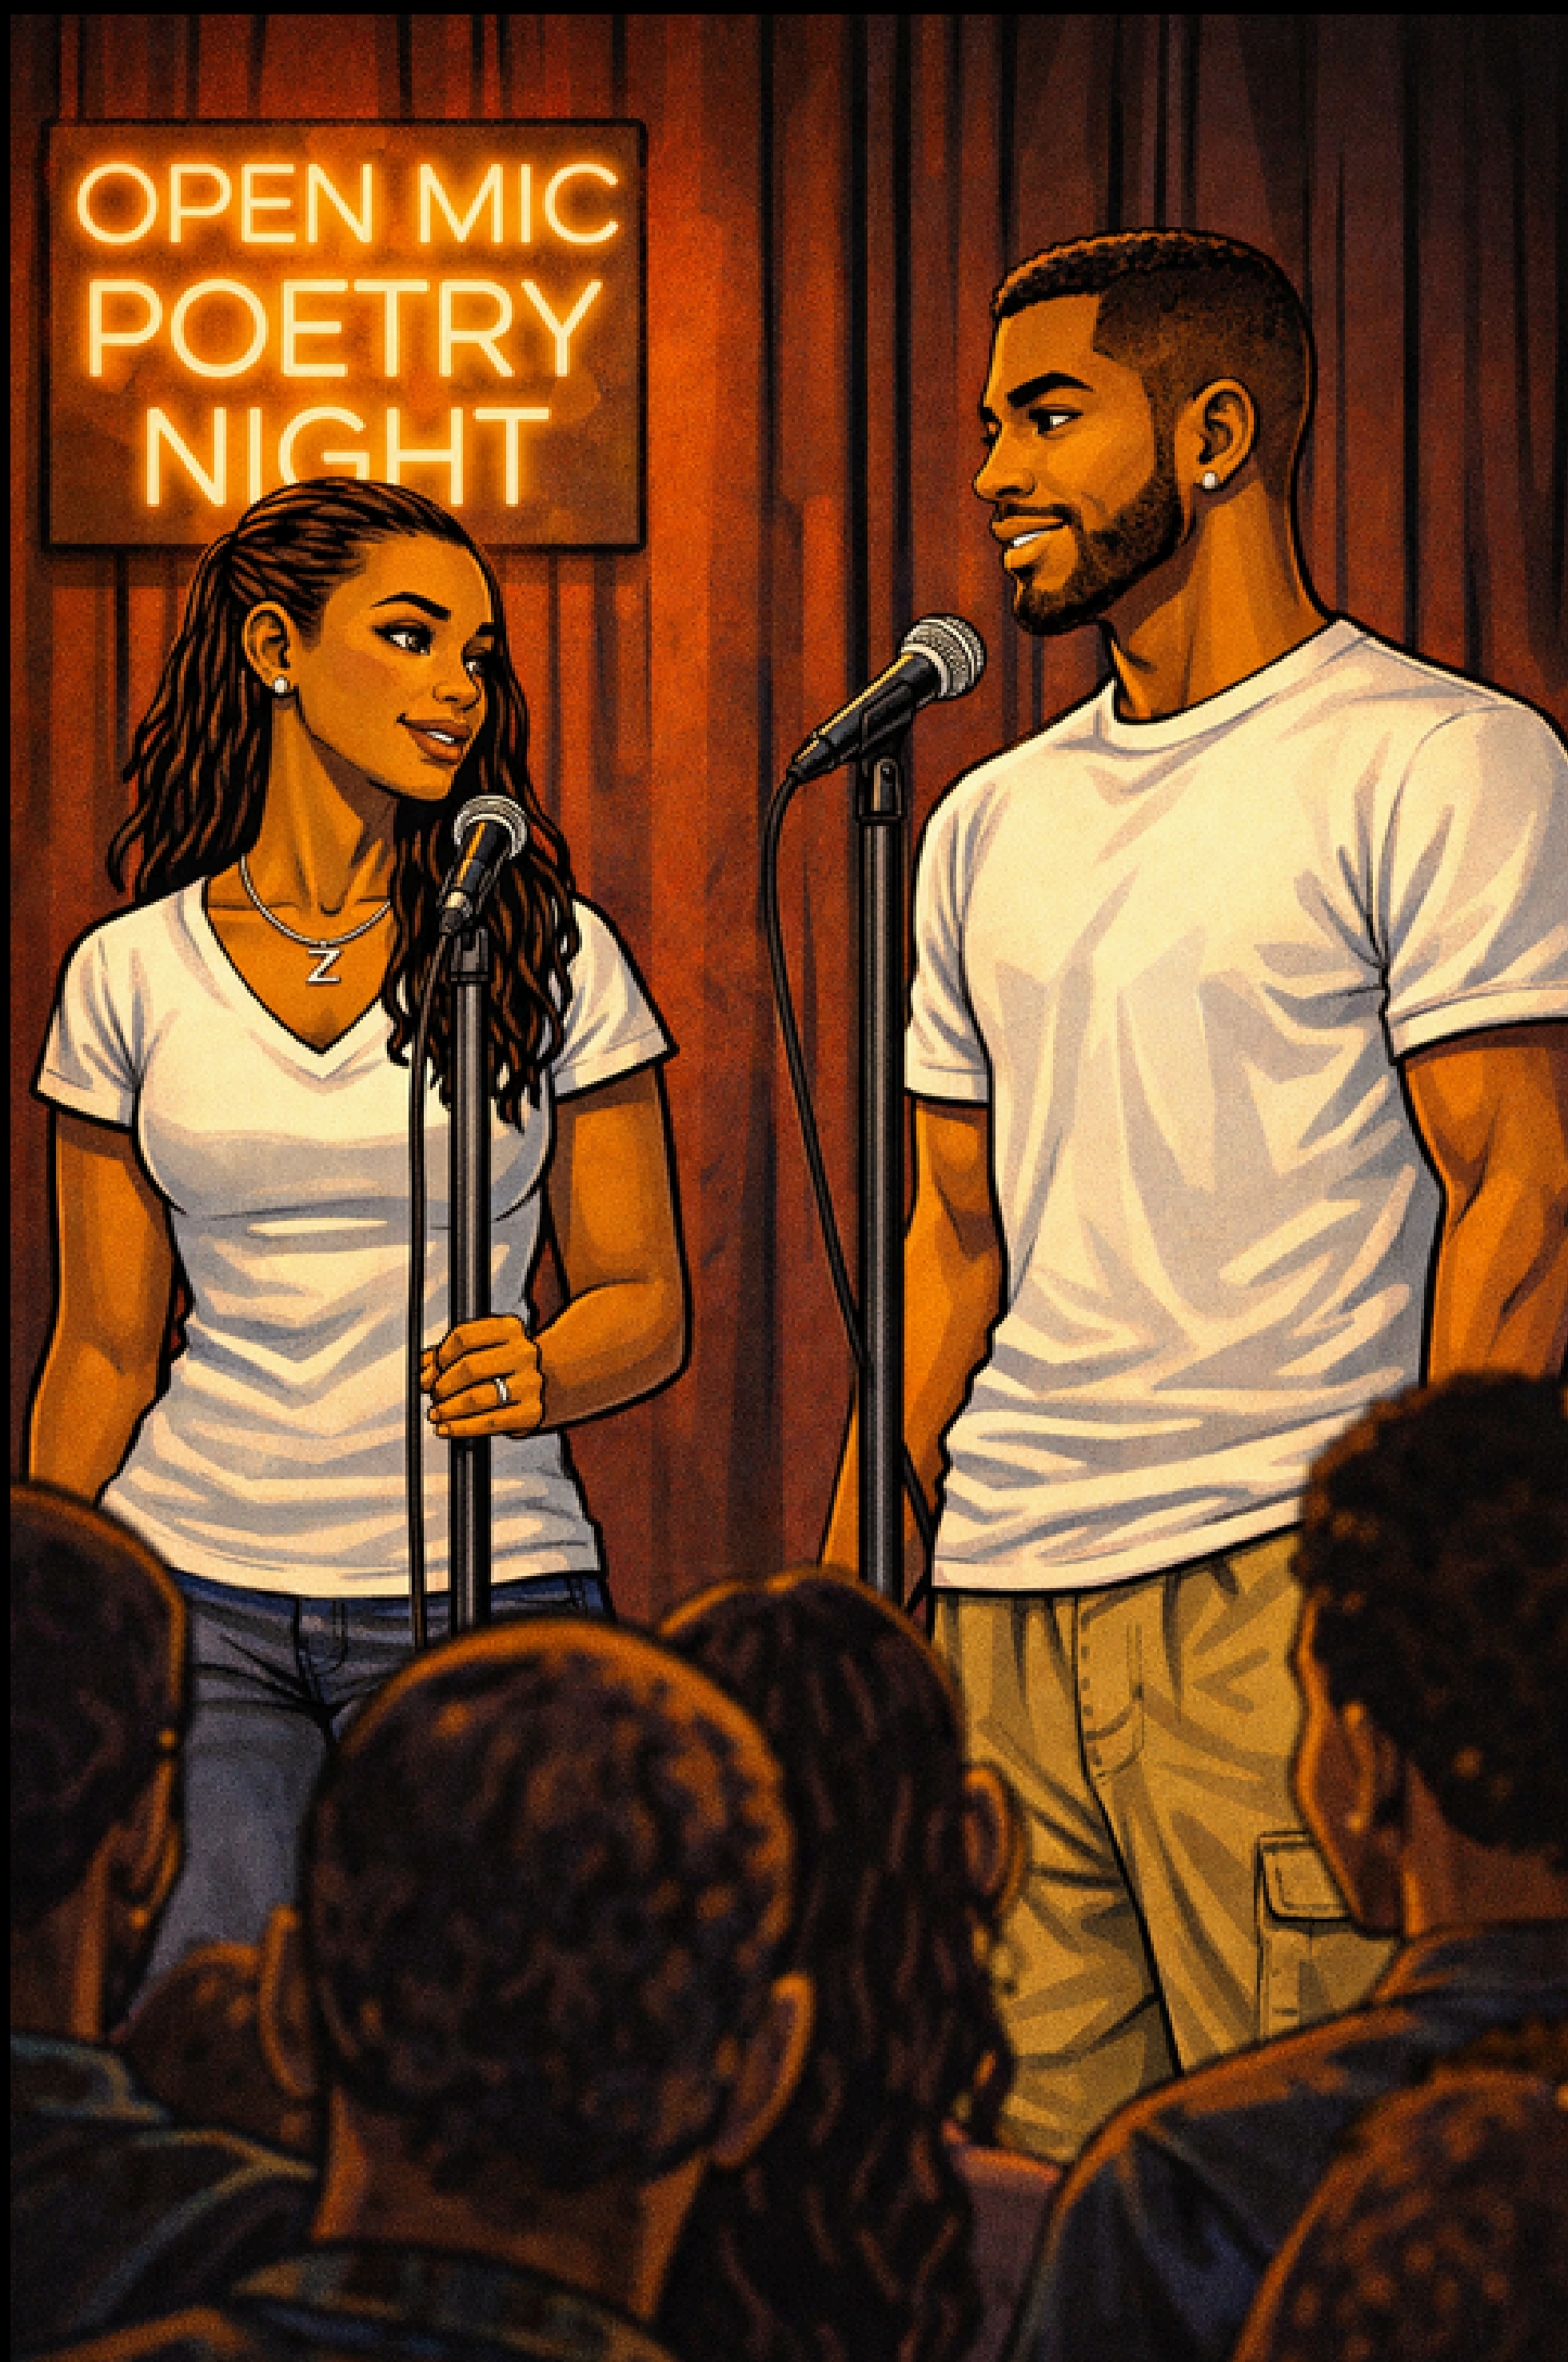

Wesley fed his wife different fruits before greedily tasting their sweet nectars from her lips. Wesley adored his wife, and Serenity was still head-over-heels for her husband.

They always made time to love on another no matter how busy their schedules got. Their love continues to grow through the days, the weeks, the months and the years... and they indulge in every moment.

Layna & Julian

An Anniversary Trip to Aruba

As you may remember, Layna and Julian first met at an Open Mic Night called, "Words & Verses." Well, these days the now happily married duo co-hosts these events and even perform poetry together.

When these two met, they bumped heads, but over time, their attraction couldn't be denied.

The love and adoration Layna & Julian have for one another has only strengthened over time. Their love is infectious, passionate and enduring. Layna still gets butterflies any time she sees Julian and Julian's heart can't help but to skip a beat at the site of his beautiful wife.

A perfect match, a passion that continues to burn brightly, a love that continues to endure...

As promised, Layna and Julian take one-big trip every year. This trip, however, is special because they're celebrating their three-year wedding anniversary.

With Julian obtaining more real-estate investments, and Layna's writing career taking off, time has flown by. They're determined to live their lives to the fullest, make lasting memories and build a life of happiness together.

The couple have only fallen deeper in love with every shared touch, kiss and intimate moment they share. They've recently been talking about starting their own family and what that would look like for their lives.

They're excited at the prospect of starting a family, and they both believe the other one will make a great parent... But for now, they're going to keep catching these flights!

During their anniversary trip, they made sure to enjoy some LIVE entertainment and their favorite place; the beach! The pair have grown to love white sands & blue oceans during their travels together. Julian loves the feel of Layna in his arms and Layna still melts into his touch the same way she did when they first met.

Later that night...

The night of their anniversary, Valentine's Day, Layna and Julian enjoyed a romantic candlelit dinner. The couple is excited to continue exploring new destinations with one another as their love continues to grow and blossom. day by day.

Layna & Julian have certainly found 'a love of their own' in one another.

Every now and then, I think about what some of my characters would be doing. Though I don't intend to add any more books to this series, I thought this would be a nice treat for those of you who fell in love with Wesley, Serenity, Sky, Julian & Layna.
