UNITED CHURCH
OF CHRIST

For my column this week, I simply offer this prayer:

Gracious God, the One who pours love into our hearts, we pray this morning that accompanying your love you will pour into us courage, stillness, and wisdom as well. We live in a moment of upheaval and fear. We live in a moment when we worry about tomorrow and fear what it will bring. O God, give us the gift of life in the moment, the gift of seeing the reality of that moment and the discernment to do what is right. Give us eyes of wisdom and compassion especially for the most vulnerable.

In this pandemic, we pray for all those affected by the Coronavirus, first and foremost for those who've contracted the disease and for those caring for them. We pray also for those who struggle with clinical anxiety and worry who are really suffering amid the panic we see everywhere. Give us balance, a balance that forgoes panic but applies wisdom and prudence, so we can help ease other's pain.

We also pray for those suffering from other illnesses and issues amid this time. Let us not forget that struggles and hurt exist all around and in various forms. Help the aging, the sick, the dying, the poor, the hungry, the homeless, the victims of war and devastation, the hated and despised and discarded.

We pray as well for our leaders. Help them rise to the moment, see past themselves and see the most vulnerable among us. Help them to make decisions based on the wisdom of experts who you've gifted with knowledge and expertise. Help them to balance it all, and lead us to avoid the extremes of panic and dismissiveness by firstly mirroring it in themselves.

May our own feelings of vulnerability during this time of pandemic lead us to more clearly see the most vulnerable among us who've always been there needing our help. May we sense in our own fear and worry those who've experienced and still experience the same all too often, all year long, year after year. Let our momentary stress and concern lead to more compassion individually and collectively, O Loving God.

Lastly, Lord, may we sense glimpses of gratitude amid it all. May we hear music a little more poignantly and appreciatively. May we enjoy more walks in the neighborhood, acknowledging with light hearts the grass, the trees, the sky and clouds that greet us along the way. May we send and receive notes of greetings and well-wishes with a cheerful, reciprocating spirit. May we laugh as much as we can, smile through the worry, and know You are in control and that this too shall pass.

God, bless us and keep us. Make your face to shine upon us and be gracious to us. Smile toward us and bring us peace, a peace that outlasts all earthly and temporal things.....Amen.

A Message from Charlene about the Love Packages

This is a thank you for your faithful support to Church Women United who had the Love Packages Box placed in Fellowship Hall many years ago. It supported third world countries with the religious materials, the Ronald McDonald House with the can tabs, the medicine bottles for the Human Society, and St. Jude's children with greeting cards for their art projects.

The collection of these items will be discontinued and the box you've gotten so used to will be removed. I ask that all these items be recycled and/or passed on to other organizations who do charity work with the donations.

On behalf of Church Women United, thank you again. Sincerely, Charlene Kinyalocets

PASTOR'S REPORT – Rev. Don

1. Ash Wednesday happened without a hitch in the newly redone chapel. There was a small turnout of people due to the blustery, snowy weather.
2. I will be planning a Maundy Thursday service per tradition at St. Paul's.
3. The Open Mic Worship idea has been scratched. It has not been well received at other venues in the community.
4. I am thinking of advertising on Facebook for a Sunday service after Easter. It would be wise to somehow make the service unique. $100.00 for advertisement would be a good first time start.
5. We will be joining First UMC Lenten Study starting Thursday, March 5. The Parables Of Jesus will be taught by Dr. Marilyn Clark, a retired professor at Xavier University.
6. I will be making a push to make more visits through Lent. If you know of anyone who would like visit, let me know.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Schedule to cover office duties while Ann is out. Surgery delayed.
2. Search committee update. Carl Batliner is head of the committee.
3. Do we need to “install” the search committee? Yes, Rev. Don will setup.
4. Be thinking ahead to May election of officers.
5. The date for the May congregational meeting has been set for May 17. Annual reports are due. No food for this meeting.

7. Pastor Don's exit date is July 12th.

OLD BUSINESS
