

RESPECT

What do respectful posts look like?

Respectful posts communicate the user’s perspective without harsh language or personal attacks. With RespectPays, users are free to comment their honest opinions transparently in a polite and civil way.

Platform	Example post	Example comment that lacks respect	RespectPays responses
 Facebook	"America's seniors will pay more for their health care in the new year, as the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) has announced that premiums for its Part B plan will increase by about 6% in 2025."	This is 100% the fault of the current idiot administration! Seniors are starving while billionaires get richer. That's only going to get worse with you-know-who in charge. The money goes to illegals instead of Americans.	This is important--we need to respect our seniors, who are often on a fixed income. #RespectPays It's so sad that this has happened. I hope the next administration will correct this. #RespectPays Our government needs to do a better job budgeting. This could have been prevented. #RespectPays
 x	"Younger adults are getting cancer more often. No one knows why."	@handlename should be ashamed of himself for promoting "vaccines" when we all know they are solely responsible for turbo cancers! NO MORE SCIENTISTS! #turbocancer #antivaxx If the vaccine is causing it, we can only hope that people who thought it was a good idea to get it would be the ones to get turbocancers! #Covldiots	We need to understand why young adults are getting cancer more often. Maybe getting COVID is the cause, in which case getting vaccinated might help! #VaccinesWork #Covid19 #RespectPays The tragedy of losing young lives to cancer is real. Losing young lives to COVID is also real. #GetVaccinated #science #RespectPays

Instead of increasing divisiveness, #RespectPays crowdsourced comments move the conversation toward civilized discourse.

