NUMEROLOGY

Numerology is the science of numbers, or vibrations, which come into play in your life and have a definite influence over you. You came into this life at a certain time and with a certain name, and from these much can be told about you.

Numerology discloses what your Soul desires to accomplish this lifetime. It offers the opportunity to understand oneself better and to realize what talents and abilities you have brought with you. It will show your strengths and weaknesses, your Destiny and how best to achieve it. Numerology helps understand karmic lessons and debts, challenges and obstacles, and what can be done to improve your life experience.

Your name and birthdate tell astonishing stories and reveal amazing facts. The romance of living, the drama of being born, the inspiration of companionship and the promise of usefulness to the end of life are all written in the name given at birth to the new soul.

No one was born to struggle a whole lifetime through. Happiness, success and the joy of living are rewards for the one who follows the destiny written in their name.

No number is ever limited to what it is, however, and no person is limited by the numbers in their chart - unless that is their choice. Understanding your numbers will help make your path a little easier, but we all have within us the ability to become anything we would like to become, to take the positive aspects of your numbers to their highest potential possible.

My love to you in all you do

Darlene J. Wilson

EXPRESSION

Your Expression is the You that others generally see, the You they know the best. It explains your greatest talents, abilities, and possibilities. The Expression indicates the chief assets that best suit you to do.

#7 - This is a magical, mystical number and has very special properties. Seven stands as the space for quiet and peace. It can bridge the higher world with the lower one, bridge the inner world with the outer one, or anything that needs bridging. Standing with each foot in a different place, you are not really sure where you belong. Frequently, you find yourself in uncommon positions, perhaps as a child of a "mixed marriage" or someone holding opinions and viewpoints that bear no resemblance to those of your peers. You may try to hide behind silence, thinking that may bridge the gap. It's difficult to camouflage a bridge. You symbolize great dedication, inner strength, wisdom and tenacity of purpose as these are the tools needed for a job that requires much faith. You enter the higher realms of existence; it serves as your bridge.

You are destined to be one of the "educators" of the world. You must study, prove, test and make sure of facts until you can write, teach or demonstrate your knowledge to your fellow man. Your life should be an interesting one for you search after knowledge will bring you many experiences and unusual associations, to teach you to discriminate between which is true and false. It is your destiny to live by the realities of life and not by superficial standards; when you realize this you will not be alone, for the world will then beat a path to your door for counsel, advice and learning.

There will be times when you need to broaden your opportunities. Travel, go into out-of-way places. Mix with people who are the thinkers of the world, such as scientists, investigators, historians, inventors, etc. Invite to your home those who have brains. Make your home high-class and selective, but warm and helpful to all who seek knowledge and earnestly try to bring science and occult principles of knowledge to bear upon human experience.

Dignity and refinement describe you fairly well, although you can seem aloof and even cold at times. You are not ruffled easily and take everything in your stride. You enter a room quietly, analyzing and taking everything in. You are usually graceful and poised. You see all sides of everything and so your opinion is usually valued and sought. You dislike people who talk about things they know nothing about. You value knowledge and wisdom and are a lover of books. Things of perfection, technique, spirituality, quality, confidence and a scientific nature appeal to you. Remember to use your intuition, heed your inner guidance and radiate your inner peace.

At birth your Fairy Godmother probably touched your forehead with her magic wand and said, "Dedicate your life to the pursuit of truth and radiate its brilliance, fearlessly". You are here as a lighthouse for the world, and when you are centered in your heart, you radiate with great brilliance. When you are centered in your intellect, trying to analyze it, rationalize and debate it, it turns into so many words. The world really doesn't need more words right now. It needs dedication to the truth, which is: That God Is. You operate through the Law of Attraction. You are always drawing unto yourself your perfect experiences for growth.

Bring more ceremony into your life. Celebrate the conclusion of each day, the rising of the moon, invent your own causes for celebration. You have been a seeker on the path of truth for lifetimes. Dig back into your unconscious and bring forward the wisdom that is stored, waiting there. You need a time to be alone by yourself, every day. Everyone benefits if you take it.

You have spent lifetimes questing and accumulating the knowledge and wisdom you now have, preparing for the time this would be needed. The bridge is one of your most important symbols, assisting you to extend into worlds that haven't been joined before. Bridging requires the great strength of purpose and dedication that you have developed. Having survived the "dark days of its soul" your future will be a life of quiet strength in devotion and absolute trust in God. You will shine your light proudly and share your knowledge with all of mankind, speaking truth as you see it.

NEED TO LEARN: When you are feeling alone, left out or rejected, you are usually causing it yourself. Learn not to be perfect all the time. Learn not to judge from appearances, to trust your intuition, and to develop your highest levels of wisdom. You must be able to spend time by yourself without feeling isolated. Your development depends on your ability to retire into yourself to find faith and peace.

NEGATIVE:

You can become so introspective and self-centered as to be a virtual recluse. Your lack of contact with others will make it difficult for you to grow and develop.

POSITIVE:

If you can get in touch with the satisfaction of working as a teacher, counselor, researcher or at any job that calls on intuition, mind and spiritual awareness without stressing material benefits, then you will find much. You may struggle against the very experiences which will make your life work. You must become aware of the excitements of the spiritual forces which can be used to your advantage.

LIFE PATH

Your Life Path shows you the direction you need to be going with your life. If you don't life will bring frustration, dissatisfaction and problems of various kinds. It indicates what you came to earth to do with your life.

#4 - SELF-DISCIPLINE - You are the worker of the world. You must strive diligently and dedicatedly to achieve your goals. Things will not come easily, but only through effort. You may have a tendency toward laziness or avoidance of work from a previous life or lives. You may begrudge the work at hand and become irritated in your labors. When you resist the lesson of this number you tend toward the unconventional and refuse to honor custom or social norms. You dislike routine and system and will want to pass detail and monotonous requirements to someone else. When this attitude prevails, you may get to a point of success but eventually your whole world will collapse. You will have to start again step-by-step, from the solid foundation to the well-earned heights. You are preparing for the future, so you must lay a firm foundation that will last. Go slowly, doing all with perfection, paying attention to the slightest detail, putting forth as much effort as is necessary to do the job well, whatever the job may be. Do not be easy on yourself; do not think in terms of hardship or self-pity. Use your capabilities by working them their greatest extent, for they are your "tools".

Your opportunity lies in learning the value of work, in system and routine, in being dependable and patient, in doing what needs to be done and doing it well, in building for others as well as yourself, and in setting an example of discipline. This path can be one of great accomplishment - but it can only be realized when you are the captain of your own ship. Self-mastery comes through discipline.

You are loyal, intense, and a dedicated worker when you remain positive. Once given an assignment, you will carry it out until it is completed. You handle money well and tend to keep a small reserve for fear of not having any resources. You need facts and must be shown the practical side of life. You need to know the whys and wherefores before taking any risks.

You tend to help all who are in need, but your conservative nature limits your friends and associates. You are not prone to superficial interests and must work on developing a lighter side in your attitude toward life.

MOTIVATION

Your Motivation has a lot to do with what you would like to be. This is a part of you that others do not see, but you feel it deep within yourself. It has much to do with your feelings, thoughts, and actions. This indicates the type of things you are really interested in doing; what your soul desires.

#3 - You are something of a dreamer at heart. You would rather be happy than practical and have a strong desire to find the joy and romance in living. Inspiration and imagination are your finest characteristics and when you learn how to use them intelligently they will be the means of your attaining the best that life has to offer.

You love to talk and express your opinions and ideas when you are with those you love and you will generally find yourself the center of activities because of your ability to liven things up by your pleasant friendly manner. You should specialize in making others happy. You will do better in life when you follow your desire to do things on a large scale and do not try to hold yourself down to a limited scope of activity. Stick to your dreams and make them come true, but don't dream too much and fail to get down to earth.

You are generally happy and optimistic, and because you do not let life's problems get you down, you set a good example for others. You are inclined toward looking at life as a game, laughing at the bad times, and you rarely if ever worry. You are very emotional and loving, and if you cry, it's not for long. You are very social, loving crowds and people in general, and like to do a lot of entertaining. You don't care much for being alone and want to be popular and have a lot of friends. You may be artistic, and you definitely love things of beauty and want them around you. You can be like a butterfly - flitting from here to there - but you spread happiness wherever you go because of your sense of humor and your interested, entertaining nature. You give your mistakes and failures little thought and go out to try again.

You are capable of a deep love and of sacrificing yourself for those you love; and you want to have love and be loved. You have so much ability to make others happy that you should never be alone or without love. Should you find yourself without admiration, it might be because you had consciously become self-centered or self-satisfied and so interested in your own affairs and activities that you had forgotten to think about the affairs of others.

Now and then you talk too much and like to show off a little, but as long as you keep cheer, good will and beauty in your heart, you will find no difficulty in carrying out your destiny and working out your problems.

Your heart's desire is joy. A little child lives inside your heart and needs to be able to come out and play regularly. Stifled away, the child pouts and finds ways to take revenge on you for allowing that to happen. To avoid any such dire consequences, make good times a regular part of your life. Approach life playfully, lighten up and laugh whenever necessary and don't ever allow yourself to think you are a "grown up".

IMPRESSION

Your Impression tells what you desire to be. These are secret inner dreams of the self, many times brought to the surface in daydreams. This is not expressed to friends or family and sometimes not even evident or realized by your self.

#22 - You would like to devise more productive methods of farming, more efficient means of transportation, ways to produce better products, build better buildings, improve working conditions - any improvement that would benefit mankind. You would like to build large and worthwhile things and do things on a large scale. You would like to be a statesman or diplomat in order to bring about peace and better relations among countries. You would like in some way to reach the people in other countries and become friends.*

OR Converted to single digit - #4 - You would like to be the rock that other people lean on, to be thought of as dependable, reliable, the one who holds all together. You want to organize, establish system and routine, and make sure that all the details are attended to. You like all things to be properly and thoroughly done and you do not want to be rushed. You want to live conservatively, working and accomplishing, with your world carefully in order and nothing upsetting it. You love your country, although you see its weaknesses and to be respected in your community.

POWER NUMBER

The influence of this energy sums up the potential forces of your being and suggests a way to experience useful, happy, and productive years.

#2 - The field of diplomacy is open to you. The talent for getting on with others and to bring many together for a common good in public works and friendly association means success. Cooperation, partnerships and associations will be emphasized. You may enjoy involvement with museums, the symphony, dance, and/or libraries. The nurturing energies of this number may express themselves in the form of some type of teacher or mentor. Pay attention to details and remain patient. Do not allow yourself to become used as a doormat.

BIRTHDAY

Your Birthday can tell you a great deal about yourself and its greatest influence is during the middle years of life, the years when you are the most productive.

7th - You know what you think is right and others are not likely to change your mind. Looking at things mentally and in great depth, you like to read, study, and learn. You have great intuitive powers that you need to use and good judgment and insight. You are reserved and refined, and people are rarely drawn to you for emotional reasons. You need to become a specialist in something. Your inborn spirituality makes you a lover of nature and beauty, a seeker of answers, a believer in meditation. You need time alone on a regular basis and plenty of rest and peace. You would be happiest away from city life, in a quiet, well-ordered atmosphere that allows enough time for your books, your thoughts, and the enjoyment of the finer things of life, like good music. You like quality in everything.*

KARMIC LESSON

Your Karmic Lesson(s) are situations and experiences that you have failed to meet and cope with or that you met and misused in past lifetimes. Once you are aware of just what your lesson(s) are you know what to work on, what to expect in life, and how to respond. Your Karmic Lesson(s) also indicate the type of things that may prove difficult but nonetheless can be mastered by you in this lifetime.

#4 - In the past you have disliked work - the slow, building, manual kind of labor. You have avoided it by choosing life situations where it was not necessary. Work to you represented physical strain with little to show for it and a mentality that made laborers fit for nothing else. You have been inclined to do things hastily, taking shortcuts and putting forth as little effort as possible. You have failed to learn self-discipline or organization and routine. In this lifetime you will be forced to see that little of value is accomplished without work or effort. You will have to learn to discipline yourself, establish system and routine in your life, and discard haste and shortcuts for patience and accuracy. You will be forced to work to achieve anything - to help you realize that work can be rewarding. You will learn that doing good work requires intelligence and that labor can gain you self-respect and dignity. You are no less a person and possibly a better one for working hard. You will have to be patient and adopt a slow and careful way of doing things, keeping in mind that quality is better than quantity.

#8 - You have run away from making decisions, handling matters involving money, and managing your own affairs - especially those of a business nature. You have used poor judgment and have tried to avoid the material and physical aspects of life. You have wanted nothing to do with the commercial world or authority and know little about achieving and acquiring because you have been afraid to try. You have refused to learn about the laws governing money and success and have therefore missed the lessons that can be learned from the power that goes with them.

This indicates difficulty handling personal emotions and relating emotionally with others. You meant well but left little to those whose lives you touched while in that consciousness. You were less than sympathetic toward the suffering of others, overly concerned with your own suffering and loss. You were unwilling to face and deal with the harshness and cynicism of life.

Life will be such that you will be forced to learn how to handle money, make decisions, and assume authority. Life will bring you one series after another of emotionally traumatic situations which put your personality under stress until it finally reaches out to the soul for relief and instruction. Marital, job, and health setbacks will cause grief, opening the heart center, and bringing you the chance to understand and sympathize with the suffering others go through in life. You must learn to manage things yourself and learn to use good judgment. The big lesson to remember is never to use money, success, power, or anything solely for self-advancement. If you do, there will be consequences. Often the penalty is loss of health, happiness, or contentment. Until you learn how to manage well for yourself, you may be striving hard to achieve without satisfaction - with many disappointments and failures the result. Money could be very hard for you to come by and when it does come it could almost seem to vanish into thin air - it goes so quickly. Then you will be made to feel the absence of funds keenly. Once this lesson is learned well you stand at the door of success.

INCLUSION TABLE

When the Enchantress took away all remembrances of lifetimes past, she stored many traces of them here, in this valuable table. So it is a rich source of knowledge of past lifetime accomplishments which can now lead to an understanding of present strengths and weaknesses or imbalances.

Where the Inclusion Numbers are found in other parts of the chart, it represents a desire to strengthen this area. Even if it is not to be found anywhere, this is still a force for improvement. People are usually aware when they are unbalanced in something, expressing too much of a trait or not.

Many 9's in a name can mean great flair for drama and intensity. It represents someone with unusual caring and depth of feeling as well as unlimited capacity for the appreciation of the beauty of life. This is an old soul who has lived many lifetimes, caring deeply enough to raise the condition of mankind, and working to bring more love and acceptance onto the planet. Their gift now is the thanks and appreciation of many loving hearts who have been touched and transformed by their love. The negative side could be an instability coming from their deep emotional nature so that they experience the widest mood swings and see only the melodrama in life. Or someone who is completely down on everyone and can see no good anywhere.

THE METHODS OF APPROACH

This reveals a great deal about yourself and what is natural for you. Becoming aware of your natural tendencies will keep you from repressing them. Repressing your natural tendencies can lead to frustration with what you are and with your life.

11-Your approach to situations is with far-seeing vision that must be tempered with practicality to be really worthwhile. You have the ideas, but you need to find ways of putting them to use. You can be energetic to the point of nervous exhaustion if you aren't careful. Because you want to be respected, you Strive for it. You tend to be guided by intuition and your spiritual nature, which is good. You may even search for answers through psychic means. You tend to look at things differently from others and may try to impose your ideals and morals on them. You should recognize inspiration and revelations when they come your way.

AFFAIRS OF THE HEART

This will show how you will mostly likely respond in a close relationship especially when love is involved.

7 - You can be a great puzzle when it comes to love relationships. You act uncaring at times and even appear cold and unfeeling. This is because the feeling and thinking natures of 7s are fairly well balanced and they are not sure which to list(n to. When listening to their feelings they are very warm and affectionate, capable of speaking words of love and demonstrating that they really care. When the head holds sway, they are usually reserved, somewhat aloof, and say or do very little to let you know that they feel at all. Some of these people are all one way or the other, while some of them add to the confusion by being a mixture of both. If someone is involved with one of the cold, reserved types, he or she should remember that under that brittle exterior is a sensitive and emotional nature. Often it is a fear of being hurt that makes a 7 put up a front. If someone makes you feel safe and secure, you are apt to relax. If you are a 7, the chances are you will show your feelings far more with actions than with words, as you are not very verbal.

Usually quiet, you are far more likely to enjoy a day in the country than a social event, and if you go to a party you would rather watch than get into the swing of things. When you are standing on the sidelines, people should just leave you alone. They might as well get used to not being included in all of your activities. You require time by yourself, and your desire to be alone is not an indication that you don't care for others. You are basically a great thinker who needs quiet time. You like to talk with knowledgeable people, and education, however gained, holds a great attraction for you. You will be far more talkative when you feel there is something worth talking about. People should keep one thing in mind-you often tend to be something of an authority on the things that interest you, and they should avoid arguments with you unless they know their ground.

Quite often you have an annoying habit of being a perfectionist-you do things to the best of your ability and expect the same of others. This can make you very demanding. You are refined and like 'class," or your idea if it. You are likely to be concerned with things like etiquette and good behavior. You usually have excellent taste and tend to like good paintings, books, antiques, heirlooms, and anything that is full of tradition. You like occasions like Christmas or Valentine's Day and want to make big things of them.

As a lover you are generally thoughtful unless you get too involved with your own thoughts, in which case you can be forgetful and preoccupied. If you seem to be off in your own little world, you probably are. Your thoughts are also apt to be concerned with things of a spiritual nature, the psychic or occult. Kindness is one of your strong points-you can't stand cruelty or brutality of any sort. You respect physical strength but only if it hurts no one. Another thing that you aren't fond of is conflict, because it disrupts the quiet atmosphere that is so necessary to your happiness and emotional balance. When you do give in to an argument, it's because you feel that you are right and others should know it also. You can become very withdrawn when confronted with petty bickering and upheaval.

If others want to get their way, they should present a good case and go armed with the facts-all of them. You will want to examine the whole thing before you make a decision. Music has a very soothing effect on you. People should give you a lot of love-even if you throw cold water on it. They should be sincere and honest and faithful to you. Others should share your interests but not give up their own.

PINNACLES

The Pinnacles show how you may smooth out your path. They can aid you in achieving greater success in life. They can be the reason you become dissatisfied with a certain job; cause you to feel the need to make changes in your home, locality, friends, lifestyle, and even your way of thinking. They will bring new situations and people into your life.

Your First Pinnacle covers the spring of life and is very personal. Birth to Age 32 years old - #8 - Situations should be concerned with business, finances, and things of a material nature, large plans and operations, constructive activities, positions of leadership and control, reaching goals, community matters. Associations should put you in positions of leadership.

Develop efficiency, dependability, strength, diplomacy, executive abilities, and determination.

Respond to situations with loyalty, perseverance, hard work, definite goals, thoroughness, an exacting and uncompromising nature, big plans and faith in your ability to achieve them, good judgment. Your attitude should be purposeful and you should expect to be successful. Balance can be a delicate issue, as it is so easy to lose it. You are a little like a see-saw that can be blown out of balance by a blast of wind. The desire of this period is to balance, so movement and change are a big part of the picture. There really is no right or wrong, good or bad; it is only your perception of them. There is an incredible amount of drive for mastery at this time. The desire is to direct, control, and orchestrate everything around and inside of you. Done from a loving heart, you can be a great assistance and help to all. This can be a time of outstanding brilliance in the world of money, power, and authority, a time when you take steps forward.

Your Second Pinnacle covers the summer of life, the period of responsibility and the family. Age 33 years old to Age 41 years old - #3 - Situations should include social events and contacts, pleasant, cheerful activities, artistic stimulation, emotional associations, things on the light and beautiful side of life, and chances to let people know how you think and feel.

Develop any artistic talents, your ability to talk and socialize well, a sense of humor, creativity, your ability to entertain and be a good hostess, a pleasant personality and cheerfulness.

Your outlook should be happy, free from worry, optimistic, with a desire to put sunshine in others' lives. Learn to enjoy people, things of beauty, the outdoors, animals and children, and giving of your affections freely in the proper manner and circumstances. This is a charmed time of your life where you have talents and abilities for things you never suspected. Go back into your childhood and make a list of twenty-five things you enjoyed doing and see how many are being incorporated into your life today.

The goal is to open your own creativity and allow it to shine out to the world. Your personal expression is solely yours. Don't compare what you do with anything you've seen or heard. Allow your inner child to play; your creative imagination is your source of strength.

Your Third Pinnacle covers the middle age and the most mature attitudes of mind. Age 42 years old to Age 50 years old - #11 - Situations should be intellectual, spiritual, nonmaterial, and nonpersonal, providing chances to lead and to deal with others and possibly may involve fame. Associations should be inspiring and concerned with gaining an understanding of human nature and enjoyment of life's beauties.

Develop intuition, inventiveness, ideals, perception, spirituality, psychic abilities, the ability to inspire and illuminate, and constructive outlets for your energies.

Respond to situations with practicality, understanding, constructive ideas, positive actions and plans, spirituality, and tolerance. Avoid nervous tension and giving up your ideals.

Your Fourth Pinnacle represents the winter of life, so-called "old age" and has to do with the human and spiritual welfare of mankind. Age 51 years old and On - #6 - Situations should center around family, friends, and home, the welfare and care of others, community concerns, responsibilities and burdens, giving of advice, solving problems, bettering conditions. Associations should provide opportunities for you to use your talents for the benefit of others.

Develop your ability as a counselor or adviser, peacemaker, and problem-solver. Foster your musical, artistic, and decorative talents.

Respond to situations by providing harmony, looking for ways to improve conditions, making a home wherever you find yourself, making others comfortable and "at home," being protective, loyal, devoted, sympathetic, concerned, and understanding. Your attitude should be a desire to discharge all responsibilities well. This is a time to demonstrate service as a loving gift more than a responsibility. You are the server, not the servant. If you respect yourself and what you have to offer others will cherish it more. You bring beauty with you. Add more color, smells, sounds, flowers to your life. Love comes in many forms. Forsake the path of reaction and choose love.

CHALLENGES

Challenges show the weak links in your nature that need to be strengthened. The types of things that may pose obstacles or prove to be setbacks in your lifetime. Until they are dealt with the challenges form rough spots on your path to achieving your destiny and can hinder your success and accomplishments. When neglected, they can only present problems.

Discover your Challenge. Do not attempt to overcome it, become it. Accept its support in meeting life's requirement. Work with it. Bring it into harmony with the skills and talents you were born with. Handle it with grace and charm. It will add romance to your life through its own natural channels.

Your First Challenge covers the spring of life and is very personal. Age 0 to 32 Years Old - #3 - THE CHALLENGE OF EXPRESSION AND OPTIMISM - Do not let others stifle your means of self-expression. Develop your sense of humor. Do not allow worry or depression to enter your life. Realize that life must have its ups and downs or it would lose its teaching value. See the value in every situation. This is the challenge of joy. So allow the child in you to show. Lighten up and laugh at life and bring that humor with you into every situation. Be positive and use your words carefully. Open all your levels of creativity and express them through the arts, writing, singing, acting, or dancing.

Your Second Challenge covers the summer of life, the period of responsibility and the family. Age 33 to 50 Years Old - #2 - THE CHALLENGE OF COOPERATION AND SENSITIVITY - You need to consider the feelings of others. Do not become so sensitive that you are hurt by every little thing - even imagined things. Treat others with respect and concern. Do not overlook the small things because they can add up to something of importance. Expect to be in positions where harmony, cooperation, tact and diplomacy will be required. You have a great desire for peace, so your challenge is to handle things tactfully. This challenge is to put your own feelings into words and express them and then assist others in doing the same. This challenge teaches to be flowing, sensitive, intuitive, tender and gentle.

Your Last Challenge represents the winter of life, so-called "old age" and has to do with the human and spiritual welfare of mankind. Age 51 and On - #1 - THE CHALLENGE OF INDEPENDENCE AND INDIVIDUALITY - You MUST learn to stand on your own two feet, without stepping on others' toes. Do not depend on others. Learn to rely on your own inner strength. See yourself as you really are. Do not limit yourself. This is the time to discover and perfect the real you. Listen only inside so that you are living fully. Learn what is your way and demonstrate to yourself that it works. You will see others benefit from your ideas as if you are shining a light into the darkness, illuminating many areas. Your job is to stay balanced and centered inside yourself. Realize that the number One is the number that represents God.

LIFE CYCLES

Your Life Cycles have their greatest influence on your life and on your approach to life. They indicate the type of things that coincide with the vibrations you will attract in your lifetime. They have a great deal to do with your destiny. The first cycle is the growth period. The second cycle is the most important and the most productive period of life when you generally accomplish the most. During the last cycle you have a chance to look at your life and see what can be done to further fulfill your destiny. Opportunities, attitudes, and career directions may change slightly or drastically with the change of these cycles.

Your First Life Cycle covers the spring of life and is very personal. Age 0 to 32 Years Old - #1 - This cycle is intended to be a period of independence and a time for you to develop your individuality. You must strive toward your goal courageously, putting aside all doubts and fears, and never limiting your thoughts of what you can do. During this time you are to do what you feel is right, listening to others for what they may say of value, but never allowing them to sway you from your own opinions if they are well-founded. You must use your talents and abilities to their fullest never depending upon others but going ahead on your own. Develop your strength and determination so that others will look to you for assistance and so that you will need to look to no one. Be a leader and set out with force to realize your purpose.

As a first cycle this could have been very difficult because as a child you would not have been capable of handling the independence you felt driven to try for. You were apt to feel frustrated because your elders seem to be continually trying to stand in your way, to do things you felt capable of doing. You were probably strong-willed and dominant, enjoyed doing things alone and to be the leader or instigator. This is a very difficult cycle for a child to handle.

Your Second Life Cycle covers the summer of life, the period of responsibility and the family. Age 33 to 50 Years Old - #7 - The vibration of this cycle is definitely mental and indicates a time for developing your intellect to the fullest. The influence is also that of the unseen worlds, so this vibration can be very spiritual. It is a time for gaining inner wisdom - through study and learning and through meditation and attunement to your inner guidance. Rely upon your intuition and develop all that you have to the greatest possible degree. Do not strive for personal gain - your opportunity is in that which comes to you, not in that which you must go after. You must learn to adjust to things of the material world. Develop poise and refinement and become an authority on something.

As a middle cycle this points to a technical, studious nature that must know all about things and see the reason for them. Analyze carefully whatever you become involved in - books, situations, jobs. Take nothing at face value; look for what is real within all things. Spend time alone and use it for meditation. Don't run after things; let them come to you and you will receive what is best for you.

Your Last Life Cycle represents the winter of life, so-called "old age" and has to do with the human and spiritual welfare of mankind. Age 51 and On - #5 - This is the vibration of someone who adapts to any situation and who thrives on variety. During this cycle, don't try to settle too securely in any one place because you probably won't be there long. The influence is one of change, variety, travel, experiences - and all at a fast-moving pace. Stay on the go and learn to adjust to whatever come along. Look for new and different things and learn all that you can about them. Meet all the people you can and see what they can teach you.*

As a final cycle, this vibration usually indicates that there will be variety, people, and usually travel and that there should be enjoyment of all. This should be a time free of cares so you can indulge in the pleasant things that you like. There is likely to be a desire for the intellectual, and you might even feel the urge to try your hand at writing or inventing. It is a good time for any kind of travel to other countries and learning about their people and ways of life.

PERSONAL YEAR

Your Personal Year is the vibration that influences your life for any given year. It gives you guidelines about what years are best for certain activities, and it also helps to show you when it would be best to avoid doing some things. Your Personal Years changes from birthday to birthday.

OCTOBER 2019 - OCTOBER 2020 - #20/2 - TURNING POINTS, DECISIONS, AWARENESS, ADAPTABILITY, RECONSTRUCTION. Sudden events require you to make a decision that could be a turning point in your life. A change of location, a new job or fresh relationships demand new thoughts, feelings, and actions from you. Be able to see the alternatives, the pros and cons. In this way you will learn much about yourself and how adaptable you are. If you accurately weigh and measure your present situation or any situation presented to you during this period, you will formulate a profitable plan that can be implemented in-the-near future.

Unless you act decisively to put your ideas to practical use, the influence of this time can make you restless and uneasy. Do not remain idle, and don't waste time. You are experiencing a period of growth; future realizations are now germinating. Do not resist the need for change. Remain adaptable, use your common sense, and come to a logical conclusion. Then you have fulfilled the requirements of this period.

OCTOBER 2020 - OCTOBER 2021 - #12/3 - WAITING PERIOD, CHANGE OF VIEW, REVERSAL, SUBMISSION. Stop, look, and listen. This is a quiet pause in your life, when you should spend time thinking, learning to see things as they really are and not as they appear.

Meditation, trips to the seashore or countryside, classes in philosophy and mind relaxation techniques will help put you in touch with the power now working beneath the surface. Your affairs will take care of themselves now, without effort on your part.

Some situations will come to a head and many will be settled, but you should suspend all decision-making. Let the cycle work for you: observe, reflect and meditate.

If you remain absorbed in physical matters now, you may suffer reversals in friendships and fortune. Sacrifices will be required through trial and loss. Rather than fight these forces, flow with them. You will obtain what you want by remaining passive, sympathetic and tactful, as this vibration achieves success only through acceptance.

OCTOBER 2021 TO OCTOBER 2022 - #13/4 - CHANGE, RELEASE, TRANSFORMATION. You can expect changes that will bring an end to conditions that no longer serve a useful purpose in your evolutionary scheme. Any rigid thought patterns must be altered and crystallized ideas must be shattered. Old ideas must be swept away to make room for new and better ones.

Be prepared to meet fresh ideas, new people and stimulating conditions. A change of plans, a new location and different people open the channel for new opportunities. This is a reconstruction period, which can bring great happiness if you make the right decisions. This is a time to depart, to travel, and to grow.

OCTOBER 2022 TO OCTOBER 2023 - #14/5 - ACTIVE SEXUAL PRINCIPLE, SOCIAL AND FAMILY OBLIGATIONS, COMPETITION, A NEED TO VERIFY. A variety of experiences will occur that urge you to slow down and think about your previous behavior. You may need to modify your lifestyle and control your desires and sexual appetites. The sexual principle is active now and can result in enlargement of your family.

Competitive situations may arise. In commercial or political enterprises, money and business dealings can be profitable if you are aware of all the alternatives. Be aware that there are risks involving the loss of property or business failure, so check out everything before jumping. Look at all sides and be open to others opinions. Social and family obligations could be at the root of peculiar circumstances that will need careful consideration.

Through concentration and mental transference of your thoughts, you can easily influence others now. Your verbal suggestions can sway their decisions which can work to your advantage. You will gain through tact, diplomacy and persuasion. Listen to your dreams and inner prompting.

OCTOBER 2023 TO OCTOBER 2024 - #15/6 - INDECISION, BONDAGE, FREEDOM, LAUGHTER, DISCERNMENT. The materialistic side of life is emphasized now. You may receive money and favors from others. Opportunities for progress can come through a radical change in your lifestyle that releases you from present limitations and allows you a freer expression.

Long held views may change, and newly found beliefs can set your mind at ease and eradicate old fears. You may have to make decisions and take decisive action.

Be careful not to burn the candle at both ends in an attempt to satisfy your personal needs. Don't chain yourself to things or people who will place you in servitude. You should be cautious about signing contracts or agreements at this time.

Don't allow outward appearance to cause heartaches, trouble in partnership or ineffective action. Look beneath the surface and see the situation as it really is.

Learn to laugh at your own and other people's weaknesses. By lightening the seriousness of your problems, by accepting the frailties of others and by looking beyond the limitations of circumstances, you can bring about peaceful and satisfying solutions. Laughter cleanses the soul and can lead to physical healing through spiritual understanding.

OCTOBER 2024 TO OCTOBER 2025 - #16/7 - LOVE AFFAIRS, HEALTH, ACCIDENTS, AWAKENINGS. The unforeseen and sudden events of this period are intended to overthrow existing conditions, especially in a material sense. Erroneous ideas and habits must be altered, and for some this has to be done in a forceful manner.

Deception and trouble in matters of the heart are likely. The love you give can be misplaced, and disappointments may result. Trouble in relationships come from your pride and emotions. The result is personal isolation.

Do not overwork now. An over expenditure of energy will take its toll on your health. The energy operating during this cycle is intense; therefore, do not take risks. Be careful of accidents and conflicts with others. You are in touch with your intuition. If you listen to the generous advice of your inner self you can formulate plans to be implemented in the next cycle. The power for loss is great during this period, but so, too, is the potential for financial gain, fame and prosperity. All the material rewards are yours as long as you are not obsessed with ownership.
