Visual artist with 35 years of experience in fine arts, and teaching. Skilled communicator, freelance designer, painter, and sculptor. Enthusiastic advocate of art education.

By way of introduction, I am visual artist and art instructor and I've been making and teaching art for over 35 years. I've written and presented after-school Art Classes, Art Discovery Camps, and Museum Outreach programs to children of all ages.

My commission work always begins with collaboration and I'm passionate about matching skills and mediums with ideas. Choosing the right translation is the type of creative energy that drives my artistic expression. I deliver portraits and landscapes in charcoal, pastel, chalks, acrylics, and oils. I like illustration work and have drawn a few books and freelance projects. My murals can be found in Pennsylvania, Georgia, and Alabama. My portraits, paintings and drawings hang in homes in the US, Singapore, New Zealand, Australia, Dubai, Denmark, Spain, Switzerland, and Scotland.

I began writing my StART series of adult art classes 15 years ago and teaching gives my practice of art making a purpose. I share skills and hone my own. Each class includes written lesson plans, discussions, and demonstrations. Teaching has also been a great way to truly connect with brilliant people from all over the world. We moved to Southeast Asia in 2011 and I taught my classes in Singapore for 3 years and Kuala Lumpur for 2 before moving back to the US in 2017.

Tampa has been terrific! Tampa Regional Artists welcomed StART classes at the Old Hyde Park Art Center and I also practiced my passion for teaching children over the summers. For two years, I taught underserved kids at community centers at The Dali Museum (St. Pete, FL) and I also wrote and taught an Art Expressions Camp for Hillsborough Community College's "Kids College".

In early 2020, I joined the artist collective; Cypress and Rome where I launched 4 more classes at Lulu Studio. In March, all my StART classes (7) converted easily to Zoom virtual format. The virtual classroom has opened enrollment to folks anywhere. Current classes include folks in Tampa, Orlando, North Carolina, and Toronto.

I am always looking for new artistic adventures and I am thrilled by how Tampa delivers so many great opportunities to work at what I love. Please look me up on Linked-in, Facebook, or our website at www.aquacasastudios.com
