

The National Little Britches Rodeo Association is one of the oldest continuing youth rodeo associations in the world, with membership from kids ages 5-18 in 26 states across the nation. NLBRA is a non-profit venture to build sound, healthy minds and bodies directed toward the interest of western-minded youth, to develop character, self-reliance, good sportsmanship and encouragement through competition in the great sport of rodeo. Tennessee Little Britches Rodeo Association has been created to be able to offer the talented kids ages 5-18 in our great state a chance to compete at a national level. According to RFDTV, each year thousands of kids travel the nation competing in local rodeos for a chance to qualify for Little Britches National Finals, now held at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, OK.

Tennessee Little Britches Rodeo Association, TNLBRA, will have approximately 100 competitors in the sanctioned divisions of Little Wrangler, Junior and Senior division for ages 5-18. Of course, none of this is possible without the continued support of parents, grandparents, friends and other family members who cheer on these talented athletes. Our spectators are expected to number 350+. These future rodeo stars and their families travel not only from Tennessee but also Alabama, Missouri, Kentucky, Illinois.

Each rodeo weekend TLBRA provides a Saturday and Sunday rodeo for our contestants. We have a preliminary schedule set for the 2023-2024. All TLBRA rodeos will be held at PJ Farms Arena in Columbia, TN.

With generous contributions from sponsors, TNLBRA will be able to provide awards for All-around winners in each age groups as well as the top 5 in each event in all age groups Last season we were able to award more than $60,000 in awards and prizes to our members. Please see our attached TNLBRA award/Sponsorship levels and we hope to add your business or family to our program.
