

Author Bio - Angelina Natale

Author Angelina Natale was inspired to write children's stories after a health episode emboldened her to sell her home and move to a farm in New Hampshire, with her oldest daughter and son-in-law, where she keeps horses and other animals. The property's name, Sky View Farm, is the namesake of her praised picture book series for children, Sky View Farm Adventures. She is also the author of the award winning A Breathe to Ride Adventure series, a social emotional learning and mindfulness series about the experiences of a girl and her horse.

Angelina and her daughters, Ashley and Gabi, have never ending fun and interesting adventure stories after spending twenty years traveling with their horses competing around the country on different breed circuits. Growing up surrounded by animals inspired her daughters to pursue careers including dog training (Gabi) and breeding, foaling, and handling young horses (Ashley). All of the Sky View Farm Adventure stories are based on real places and events.

As with the characters in her stories, Angelina hopes her young readers come away from her heartwarming tales with a belief in themselves and the good they can do in the world. She hopes these ideas stay with them long after the book is closed. When she isn't writing, Angelina enjoys reading, gardening, playing with their dogs and horses, connecting with friends, and traveling. Angelina has published six books and lives on Sky View Farm on the top of a small mountain in beautiful New Hampshire.