Working together to provide the best in Direct Primary Care

David Cianfaglione is the owner of Fast Lane Express Lube, located at 4713 Traders Way in Thompson's Station

Photography by Michael Tedesco

20 YEARS IN THE FAST LANE

JASON ZASKY

"I broke ground 20 years ago," begins David Cianfaglione, owner of Fast Lane Express Lube, on Traders Way in Thompson's Station. "I was living in Spring Hill and saw the need for a lube and maintenance shop in the Thompson's Station area, and my wife and I decided to address that need and build something," he continues, having previously worked for Saturn in Spring Hill.

Cianfaglione was right about there being a need. The shop opened for business on October 6, 2006, and has been going strong ever since. In fact, Fast Lane Express Lube is as busy as ever, having recently added two new mechanics to the now 14-member team.

"It's an honest place for people to go, with very well-trained technicians who are well trained to take care of customers," adds Cianfaglione, before highlighting the services offered.

"The business is at least 75 percent oil changes and the other 25 percent comes out of the repair shop," says Cianfaglione. "That includes tire rotations, brake repairs, tune-ups and A/C recharges," he adds, not to mention all the work his team does to fix starters, belts & hoses, window motors and much more.

Cianfaglione credits much of the success of the business to what he describes as an “impeccable” work ethic—his own and that of his team.

“I’m the owner, and I’ve been here since day one, and I believe to be successful you have to be here. You have to work as a team member. (Personally), I just have to keep working and working. I don’t know anything different,” he says. “And I train my employees to become leaders, to give them that edge. They are not just employees; they are a team member at a business that is a big part of the community.”

As for the immediate future, Cianfaglione says, “I’m happy with what I have. I stay focused on taking care of all the customers we have, and want to keep what I have going,” he adds, before noting that he expects one of his three daughters to take over the business when he retires.

“I’m hoping that my oldest daughter will take it over and keep it in the family so the customers are still taken care of,” he says, before noting that many of his customers have become friends, making his work even more rewarding.

Asked if he has any parting thoughts for all the people who have patronized Fast Lane Lube Express, Cianfaglione keeps it simple and to the point.

“I’d just like to say thank you to all the customers of the past 20 years for trusting us and supporting us,” he concludes.

WHOLE HOG FESTIVAL

PAM WINDSOR

This year's John Maher Builders Whole Hog Festival in Spring Hill promises to be bigger and better than ever before! Mark your calendars for Saturday October 17th.

Held on the grounds of the historic Oaklawn Mansion, the family-friendly event offers something for everyone with live music, crafts, a kids' zone, and lots of pork-themed food and activities. And it's all for a good cause. Profits from the festival support The Well Outreach, which operates food pantries in Spring Hill and Mount Pleasant to help families in need.

The festival, which centers on all things pork-related, has added something new this year, making it more “whole hog” than ever. The new event is a Whole Hog Pitmasters Cookoff featuring a mix of nationally recognized and local pitmasters. And while pitmasters will be competing for top prizes, festivalgoers will come out winners, too. They'll be able to sample some of that award-winning barbecue.

“There will be a competition with the judges and then a second People's Choice Award,” explains Shelly Sassen, Chief Executive Officer for The Well Outreach. And for the People's Choice, we'll be selling tastings. For $12, people will be able to get tastings at 4 of the 10 pitmasters, along with baked beans, potato chips, a drink, and a roll. It will allow them to be part of that experience.”

It's a nice addition to the long list of popular pork-related activities that continue to draw big crowds every year.

“People love the hog calling contest, Sassen says. “We have people enter from five years old up to 85 years old. Some of them with authentic hog calls, some of them with creative hog calling, and it's just wonderful to have the community show such support. Then, the bacon eating contest has grown in popularity over the past couple of years. We partner with Food Lion, which helps us provide free bacon for a year for the winner of that contest.”

Local businesses also generously come together to provide lots of free activities for the kids' zone. And the regional craft fair is also a major attraction. One of the craft vendors this year will include Hope House, a newly opened Christian gift store on the Spring Hill campus of The Well Outreach. Profits from Hope House merchandise sales go toward supporting the food pantry.

Sassen says the Whole Hog Festival is The Well's biggest community fundraiser and also offers an opportunity to educate people about the growing numbers of struggling families in Maury County and ways they can contribute. Numbers show an ever-increasing need, with The Well serving just 2,400 families in 2019 to more than 28,000 families in 2026 this year.

“Every week, The Well, through the support of the community and 400 volunteers, does this work of serving our neighbors in need. We also partner with over 80 local churches to help us with our Jetpack program and our mobile food pantries.”

The Whole Hog Festival is set for October 17th – 10 am to 5 pm. Admission is $10, children 5 and under free. For more information on The Whole Hog Festival or The Well Outreach, visit: thewelloutreach.org.

KING COTTON

Since its founding by banjo player Craig Morris in 2015, King Cotton's popularity has grown far and wide, especially in Middle Tennessee where they are based. Great instrumental and vocal performances by band members Patty Mitchell, George Clark Shifflett, III, and Craig Fletcher are always well-received by audiences. Rounding out the ensemble since Craig Morris's passing is virtuoso banjo player Greg Davis

BILLY DROZE As one of the most versatile voices in contemporary Roots Music, with 15 number 1 singles, and years of performing alongside Grammy winning group Shenandoah, Billy has earned recognition in Country, Bluegrass, Americana, and Gospel music.

THE WELL OUTREACH CELEBRATES 20 YEARS

The Well Outreach, a Christian food ministry dedicated to providing food and hope to families facing food insecurity, celebrates its 20th anniversary this year. What began in 2006 in the back of a local church has grown into one of Middle Tennessee's most trusted and dynamic community food resources.

Founded with a simple mission — to be the hands and feet of Jesus by serving those in need through supporting spiritual, emotional and physical growth — The Well Outreach operated its first decade as a small, volunteer-run pantry inside a Wellspring Christian Church. Founded by Andy and Amy Hudelson

In 2016, after a full decade of existence within the church, rising community need prompted The Well to expand into its first storefront location — a 1500 square foot strip mall space on Main Street.

In 2019 the ministry hired its first full-time staff member, inviting Shelly Sassen to act as the Chief Executive Officer. At this point in time, The Well Outreach was serving 200 families per month out of a pantry facility that was too small to even accommodate a single pallet of food.

By 2020, the ministry had again outgrown its space and stepped into a significant new chapter by opening a 7,000-square-foot dedicated pantry at 5306 Main Street in Spring Hill.

Continuing its mission to reach underserved areas, The Well Outreach expanded once more in 2024, opening a second location at 700 Main Street in Mount Pleasant, Tennessee. This new 16,000-squarefoot food pantry more than doubled the warehouse space, launched the ongoing hydroponics program that produces over 700 servings of lettuce in house for guests each month, and expanded the impact of the ministry further south into Maury County.

Guests will have an opportunity to participate in a Whole Hog Pitmasters Cookoff, which will bring nationally recognized and awarded barbecue pitmasters to the event for an official competition. Each participant will start Friday evening and work overnight before the event, barbecuing a whole hog to be professionally judged and voted on by our event guests. Contestants are coming from around the southeastern United States to participate!

On the day of the festival guests will have an opportunity to purchase a special tasting and judging package that will allow them to sample contestants' finished products and then vote on their favorite. This will provide a special and authentic experience of barbecue tasting from the best of the best!

ABOUT OUR TITLE SPONSOR JOHN MAHER BUILDERS

John Maher Builders has been involved with the Whole Hog Festival for over 20 years. We have been fortunate to be a part of the Spring Hill Community since 1990 and have grown together with the city.

In recognition of the pattern this festival is one of the ways we give back to the city that has given so much to us. For the last few years this festival has been done in partnership with The Well Outreach, which works within our community and the surrounding ones to feed those less fortunate. We can't think of a better partner or mission to continue to give back and honor Spring Hill at the same time!

Training the Next Generation of Doctors

PROUDLY ENTERING A NEW ERA AS AN ACADEMIC MEDICAL CENTER

For more than 70 years, Maury Regional Health has stood as a trusted, not-for-profit health partner — caring for our friends, families and neighbors. What began as a small community hospital has grown into a comprehensive regional health system driven by a deep-rooted commitment to the people we serve.

Now, we've taken our next historic step by evolving into an academic medical center. In partnership with University of Tennessee Health Sciences, we have launched an Internal Medicine Residency Program to bridge advanced medical training with our legacy of clinical excellence.

It is a great privilege to mentor these medical leaders of tomorrow who will learn here, grow here and ensure that world-class care always remains close to home.
