SPRING HILL

JUNE 2025

A poster for the Spring Hill TN The Event. At the top, there is a silhouette of a town skyline with palm trees, set against a background of red and white diagonal stripes radiating from behind the buildings. Below the skyline, the text "EXPERIENCE" is in a bold, sans-serif font, followed by "Spring Hill" in a large, white, cursive script font, and "TN" in a small, bold, sans-serif font. A yellow banner with a red star on each end contains the text "THE EVENT" in a bold, black, sans-serif font. Below the banner, the text "Saturday ★ 10 a.m. until 2 p.m." is in a white, sans-serif font, followed by "JUNE 21, 2025" in a large, bold, yellow, sans-serif font, and "Battle Creek High School" in a white, sans-serif font. A horizontal line separates the date from the text "FREE FAMILY-FRIENDLY FUN!" which is in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font. Below this, a list of activities is arranged in three columns: "vendors", "shopping", "community" in the first row; "highlights", "dance performances", "games" in the second row; "food", "children's activities", "and prizes" in the third row; and "characters" and "and more" in the fourth row. At the bottom left, the text "presented by" is in a small, italicized, sans-serif font, followed by the TriStar Spring Hill ER logo and the text "A Department of TriStar Centennial Medical Center". At the bottom center, the text "hosted by" is in a small, italicized, sans-serif font, followed by the Spring Hill Chamber of Commerce logo. At the bottom right, there is a QR code.

CELEBRATING ONE YEAR OF HEALING AND INNOVATION

The Boyer-Bryan West Tower

One year ago, Williamson Medical Center opened the doors to a new chapter in care — and what a beautiful transformation it has been.

The Boyer-Bryan West Tower was purposefully designed to reflect the excellence of our regional health system and to serve our growing community for generations to come — advancing patient care and supporting our dedicated staff every step of the way. From state-of-the-art equipment to thoughtfully designed spaces for every stage of healing, this tower represents the best of who we are and where we're headed.

Every detail — from our spacious OB rooms and renovated NICU, to our advanced Cardiac Center with cutting-edge EP and catheterization labs — was shaped by the voices of nurses, physicians, architects and patients. It's more than a building; it's a space where care teams collaborate seamlessly, where families feel supported, and where patients experience the comfort and confidence they deserve.

With expanded units, private consult spaces, and bright, modern design throughout, this environment continues to lift the spirit of everyone who walks through our doors — enhancing collaboration, enriching patient experiences, and fostering healing in every corner.

Thank you for being part of our journey. Here's to one incredible year — and many more to come.

WITH HARPETH VALLEY DERMATOLOGY

Summer is here—and so is stronger UV exposure. Whether you're headed to the lake, the beach, or just spending time outdoors, sun protection is essential to keeping your skin healthy and youthful.

SMART SUN PROTECTION TIPS:

- Apply Broad-Spectrum SPF 30 or higher every morning, and reapply every 2 hours or after swimming/sweating.
- Use enough—about a nickel-sized amount for your face and a shot glass size for your body.
- Seek shade between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. when UV rays are strongest.
- Protective clothing, hats, and sunglasses are great additional barriers
- Don't forget your ears, lips, neck, and hands—commonly missed areas!

Protect your skin now so it stays healthy for years to come. Visit us at Harpeth Valley Dermatology and stock up on dermatologist-approved summer essentials.

OUR SUMMER FAVORITE:

THE SPRING HILL EXPERIENCE

PAM WINDSOR

Be sure to mark your calendars for the third Saturday in June. It's that time of year when residents, visitors, and local business owners come together to get to know and celebrate all Spring Hill has to offer.

The annual "Experience Spring Hill, The Event" is set for Saturday, June 21st at Battle Creek High School at 130 Battle Creek Way, in Spring Hill. It's family-friendly and has something for everybody. There will be food, entertainment, interactive events for the kids, and exhibits and demonstrations from dance studios, gyms, and more.

"We describe it as business expo meets community festival," says Jill Murrah with the Spring Hill Chamber of Commerce, Project Manager of this year's event. "There are family fun activities, prizes and giveaways, and performances, but it's also a business expo where companies set up their display tables and you can walk around like it's a mini-Spring Hill."

In years past, it's been held at Summit High School and Spring Hill High School, but this summer the spotlight is on the area's newest high school. The Battle Creek High School Band and Cheer Team will kick things off on their home turf with a performance when the doors open at 10 am.

"We have one entrance this year, so everyone starts at the same spot," Murrah says. "You'll walk in, receive a bag from our presenting sponsor, TriStar Spring Hill ER, then walk around and talk with businesses, see your neighbors, and just have a great time."

More than 140 businesses will be on hand to highlight what they do. Each will have their own booths with representatives ready to demonstrate their services and/or products, get to know current and potential customers, and answer questions. And with so many different vendors, you can expect a variety of setups and displays.

"A lot of our vendors go above and beyond in getting their booths set up," says Murrah, "and always have cool, fun things they're bringing and adding."

Among the many attractions, there will be a food court featuring local cuisine, a City of Spring Hill informative area, and a Tennessee Travels showcase, highlighting some of the best tourist spots to visit.

Kids will have a good time with everything from face painting and balloon art, to games, to getting to see some of their favorite "superhero" and "celebrity" characters.

Murrah says this easy-going, hassle-free gathering is an excellent way for the community to connect.

"I love how residents and visitors can actually meet the people behind the businesses. And the business owners get to meet customers face-to-face, so it really creates a relationship between the two. Most of us like doing business with people we know."

It's a popular event that tends to draw bigger crowds every year. It goes from 10 am to 2 pm this year, and admission is free.

John Monk, co-owner. Photography by Robbie Mathis

EUROPEAN CAR SPECIALISTS

JASON ZASKY

"We were located in Nashville for five years until we lost our lease," begins John Monk, co-owner of Cooper's Garage, explaining what led him to open a new shop—at I-65 and Peytonsville Road. Fittingly, Franklin is where he wanted to be all along.

"Back in 2016, when I decided to open my own garage, I was combing the streets of Franklin trying to find a suitable building," he says. But Monk couldn't find a suitable location, until he discovered that one of his customers—from a company called Doors Unlimited—owned a building at what he now regards as his "dream location."

"They had been in business for 20 years or so and decided they were going to retire and sell the building. It's my dream location because you can see us from the Interstate, yet we are off the beaten path," explains Monk, who converted the space into a garage that looks much like what you'd find at, say, a BMW dealership.

"The floors in the shop are all seal-coated in a superlight white-grey (color) that reflects light. We also have eight state-of-the-art Rotary lifts—the same ones they have at Porsche dealerships. We have spared no expense on equipment; even our HVAC system goes 'above and beyond,'" says Monk, who prides himself on the immaculateness of his shop.

"It looks like you could eat off the floor (of our garage)," he notes, a level of cleanliness that does not go unnoticed by customers.

"I have had so many customers tell me, 'When I walk in and see you have a shop this nice, I know that you are going to take really good care of my car,'" he adds, noting that Cooper's Garage now services Audi's, BMW's, Mercedes-Benz, Porsche's, Volkswagen's and MINI Cooper's, the latter of which were the only brand they worked on at the Nashville location.

"When Cooper's Garage originally opened, it was just MINI Cooper's. That was our niche, and it was successful," says Monk.

"But here we have branched out," he adds, thanks to the addition of factory-certified technicians for all of the above-named brands. That includes his shop foreman, a 15-year master Audi technician, and Monk's son, who was trained while working at both Volkswagen and Audi dealerships.

Yet factory-trained, certified technicians aren't the only difference between Cooper's Garage and many of its competitors.

"There's also the personal touch," adds Monk. "My service provider (Doug) and I are gearheads, so we are knowledgeable about what the technicians are telling us and able to be the liaison between you and our techs. At the same time, we are personable and build relationships."

That helps explain why the garage attracts customers from as far away as Huntsville and Bowling Green. And why Monk expects that the forthcoming grand-opening celebration for Cooper's Garage (planned for this summer) might require more space than he has on his property.

"We are going to talk to the Ag Center to see if it would be okay to use their parking lot," offers Monk, who says he drives a BMW 530 to work and also owns a handful of MINI Cooper's, including a "practically mint condition" 2005 model that he takes to events, like this year's edition of "MINIs on the Dragon," to be held this spring in North Carolina.

Meanwhile, Monk says he's focused on the day-to-day operations of Cooper's Garage, which takes its name from the late boxer featured in the business' logo.

"We named him Cooper after the MINI Cooper, so the dog was named after the brand, and the shop was named after the dog," he explains, though it's Jellybean, a French bulldog, that is now ever-present at the shop.

One thing that has not changed, however, is the guiding principles that have contributed to the success of the business.

"My philosophy is: Do what you know and do it well," concludes Monk. "And at Cooper's Garage, you're not just a number, you're a person, and you're most likely getting an appointment the same week you call."
