Ken Cox Tops at El Cap

The water is pretty low at El Cap, but Ken Cox threw a variety of rigs to win the last tournament of the year there. Ken caught three fish, one on a Texas rigged MMIII, one on a Neko Rig, and the other one on a Texas rigged Green Pumpkin Robo Worm. Included in his 7.07 pound bag was the BIG Fish of the tournament of 2.63 pounds for the win at El Cap.

Robert Billingsley took the Second spot throwing a jerkbait in the coves on light line for his three bass weighing a total of 5.09 pounds.

Mark Quaternik has shown up in the Top Five for the second time this year by fishing a drop shot Morning Dawn to coax two El Cap bass to take a ride to the scale. Mark's fish tipped the scale to 2.89 pounds, earning him a Third Place Plaque.

Mike Byrum really can't complain about his Fourth Place finish for the last tournament of the year as he won the lions share of the tournaments this year with four wins to his credit. Mike caught one bass on a trick worm, weighing 2.24 pounds to finish in the Top Five.

John Demonet must have been sleeping for most of the El Cap tournament, but still made Fifth Place with one bass caught on a Senko for 1.57 pounds.

John had a very good year winning three tournaments, catching the BIG FISH of the year weighting 8.40 pounds out of DVL in May of this year, and capturing the AOY title for 2022.

Well that wraps up the 2022 regular season, but we still have the TOC to come.

The OCBC welcomes Ty Adnani who got a late start with the club this year, but we look forward to fishing with him in 2023.

Congratulations to all the winners and contestants of the 2022 OCBC season and good fishing in 2023.

Mike Byrum said that these were the only pictures he got after the El Cap Tournament of Ken Cox and John Demonet. I have my doubts though, because they aren't holding up any El Cap Bass!

Keith Beever on a roll and Wins the TOC for the TOC as the 12 qualifiers and 2 guests plied the waters for the elusive bass. Keith Beever was on a roll after his win at DVL last month and just kept on, winning the TOC for 2011. After losing a couple of nice 3-4 pound smallmouth fishing a Triple Trout with the drag cranked down he figured out that you couldn't horse the smallies in; the hooks would pull out. After loosening the drag, the fish came to the boat without any more problems. On day one Keith brought in 5 bass tipping the scales to 10.42 pounds, and followed up on day two with 12.50 pounds for the win and also caught the big fish each day with two 3.89 pound twin beauties. Keith won in style with 22.92 pounds.

Steve Steward brought 5 bass to the scales on day one for 10.69 pounds and followed up on day two with 3 more fish for 6.87 pounds to edge out Jonathan by .04 for Second Place. Steve caught his fish on a Spit'n Image and Gary Yamamoto watermelon Hula Grubs fishing the main lake points.

Jonathan Demonet took 3rd place and was very consistent with 8.86 pounds on day one and 8.66 pounds on day two for a total of 17.52 pounds. Jonathan was also fishing the Triple Trout on the main lake points.

The heaviest bag was brought to the scales by John Demonet with a 5 fish limit on day one loading the scales to 13.67 pounds. John followed up on day two with 2 fish for a total of 16.91 pounds for his 4th place finish.

Rick Anderson finished in 5th place with 4 fish on day one totaling 7.98 pounds and 2 fish on day two for 3.24 pounds to bring his total weight to 11.93 pounds.

Tom Voth said he had a ball fishing in his first TOC bringing in 1 fish on day one and 2 fish on day two for 8.88 pounds and a 6th place finish.

Richard Cabori landed 3 fish on day one for 7.03 pounds and one fish on the second day for a total of 8.70 pounds.

Brent Oldham managed 1 fish each day for 4.71 pounds total.

John Moch caught 2 fish the first day but they didn't like his Moch Special on day two so he ended up with 3.21 pounds

Crazy Rick brought one fish to the scales on day one for 2.95 lbs. but gave the fish the day off on day two.

It was great to have Mike Stevens and Al Morris fishing as guests and letting the club catch the fish.
