Jonathan Demonet Speeds his way to a Havasu Win

Change is good for the OCBC! Information from a reliable source said that on June 5, the wind was so bad at Clear Lake that the locals had to get off the lake by 9:30 am. Wind turned out to be only a small factor in the Havasu Long Range Tournament of the OCBC.

Jonathan Demonet only used two baits to win the Havasu Tournament, a Johnny Rat in the mornings and a Zoom Speed Craw flipped in the tulle the rest of the day. On day one Jon was in second place with a limit weighing in at 16.10. Day two was an improvement over day one with 17.67 pounds and big fish for the day of 5.22 pounds bringing his total to 33.77 pounds for the WIN.

John Demonet made the biggest jump up the leaderboard, ending his day one in 6th place with 14.84 pounds and day two with 16.48 pounds to propel him to Second Place on the final day. John fished the tulle and habitat with Senkos and a Chatterbait.

Chad Compton caught all his fish on one bait, a black and green frog fished in front of the tulle. Chad was in 4th place on day one with a 15.17 pound limit, and backed that up with another limit on day two of 14.02 pounds to move up to Third Place over all.

Richard Ragland was on fire on day one, leading with 17.30 pounds, with the BIG FISH of the tournament pulling the scale down to 5.74 pounds. On day two Richard brought another limit to the scale weighing 11.44 pound which put him in Fourth Place for the tournament. Richard fished a variety of baits including the dropshot, flippin the tulle, and casting a Flint 120 Jerkbait to catch his nice bags of bass.

Rounding out the top five was Andy Willoughby. Andy also made a big jump in the standings coming from 8th place to Fifth Place on the final day of fishing. Andy threw Senkos, Ika's, jigs, crankbaits and the dropshot for two limits, 13.95 pounds on day one and 13.55 pounds on day two.

The 12 members and one guest, Ken Bullard who caught a five bass limit on day one, caught 102 bass tipping the scale to 256.41 pounds for the two day event.

DVL Scheduled for the July Heat

With the lake closures over the last few of months, DVL should be a great place to fish the July tournament. The water level is good so there will be many places with structure and cover to fish. DVL has been known as a dropshop and jig lake, so don't forget them. Good luck fishing DVL in the July heat!

1st Place Jonathan Demonet 33.77 lbs

2nd Place John Demonet 31.32 lbs

3rd Place Chad Compton 29.19 lbs

4th Place and BIG FISH Richard Ragland 28.74 lbs

Jonathan Demonet Frogs a Win Out of DVL

The Orange County Bass Club was supposed to have an afternoon/evening tournament at Irvine Lake on July 6th, but with the relocation of the launch ramp at the lake, it would have been difficult to get everyone in and out of the water safely, so the Weigh Master changed the location to Diamond Valley Lake.

Jonathan Demonet raced from pocket to pocket looking for small patches of grass that held the bigger fish and threw a frog to catch the winning five fish limit of 13.89 pounds including the big fish of the tournament of 4.66 pounds.

Chris Grogan was given a bag or two of secret baits at the last Anglers Marine Customer Appreciation Tournament and decided to try them out. As luck would have it they worked and he brought in the only other five fish limit of 9.27 pounds.

Richard Cabori, fishing with his son Kevin, caught three nice fish for third place with 7.76 pounds of DVL bass. Kevin caught one keeper of 1.82 pounds, so he hasn't lost all he learned from dad before he went away to College.

Ken Cox used a drop shot Robo worm and Zoom Brushhogs to boat 4 fish while his back seater, yours truly, did a great job of handling the net. Ken weighed in four bass totaling 7.27 pounds.

The OCBC youth just keep putting some of us old timers to shame as Seth Dubois secured the fifth spot with three fish for 7.21 pounds.

Congratulations to the top five.

A big thanks goes out to the guests who fished with us in July, namely Kevin Cabori, John Bujanowski, Chris Anderson, Nick McDermitt and last, but not least, Zuleika Caldwell. With these guests all the boats were full except for one.
