Let Us Pray -

- Heavenly Father, I thank You for being my strength and my refuge. When challenges and opposition arise, fill me with Your courage and resilience to persevere and not grow weary in doing good. Remind me that You are my strong tower and ever-present help in times of trouble.

I lay my burdens at Your feet today, casting every care and anxiety into Your capable hands. Help me to keep my eyes fixed on You, trusting that You will complete the good work You have begun in me. Grant me Your peace, a peace that surpasses understanding, to guard my mind and refocus my thoughts on You.

Grant me the grace to run with endurance the race set before me. Help me to remain steadfast under trial, to be patient in tribulation, and constant in prayer. I trust in Your promise that Your yoke is easy and Your burden is light. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen
