Above all else,
guard your heart,
for everything
you do flows from it
Proverbs 4:23

New Spirit Radio - Playlist - 05-03-26 - Protect Your Heart

Wise Words

- In this chapter Solomon advises to seek after wisdom, to avoid bad company, and to continue in the right paths of goodness and truth (biblestudytools.com)
- The Scripture uses the heart as a metaphor for the inner man; the place where decisions are made. It refers to our conscience our soul. It's who we really are.
- It involves making choices that align with your moral and spiritual values, avoiding harmful influences, and striving for a pure heart.

Our Words of the Week

- Proverbs 4:23-26 - 23 Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.

24 Keep your mouth free of perversity; keep corrupt talk far from your lips.

25 Let your eyes look straight ahead; fix your gaze directly before you.

26 Give careful thought to the paths for your feet and be steadfast in all your ways.

AI's Affirmations (How To Guard Your Heart)

- Guard your eyes and ears - it's not just entertainment
- God has surrounded me with a with a barrier of peace and serenity.

- I surround myself with people who lift me up, speak life into my vision, support my purpose, and who bring out the best in me.

- Cultivate a grateful heart and tell of God's wonderful deeds (Psalm 9:1)

Let Us Pray -

Father, today I put on the armor of God. I strap on the belt of truth of Your Word. I thank You that You are good, that You are faithful, that You are my defender and You protect me. Please guard and protect my heart from the enemy. You know what I face today – and I'm so thankful I don't have to do this life alone – that I have You. Fill my heart today with Your love, with Your peace, with Your strength. I thank you for always being right by my side and leading and guiding me – in Jesus' mighty name – Amen.
