*Living at 710 Kellogg Avenue. requires the head of household, and possibly others living in the unit, to participate in the Headed2Home rental program, which is organized, facilitated and monitored by board members and volunteers of Home Allies, Inc. Home Allies only offers targeted conversation and information with the tenant to help him/her identify past counter-productive financial and housing-related beliefs and actions, and develop skills and strategies expected to produce more positive results for the tenant in the future. Home Allies does not offer physical, medical, psychological or behavioral therapy. Home Allies does not offer assistance obtaining ‘tools’ that the tenant might need to enact skills or exercise strategies such as acquiring a photo ID, but will provide the tenant with referrals to such agencies and groups that do.

*Rent subsidies from Home Allies are funded by American Rescue Plan’s grant to Story County, Story County Housing Trust, and private donations. Agencies providing emergency housing, rapid-rehousing, permanent supportive housing or other rent support to Headed2Home tenants are expected to allocate the same amount in deposits, fees and rent subsidies to Home Allies, Inc. as they would to a private or for-profit landlord agreeing to rent to the tenant.
