STUDENTS BECOME THE TEACHER

- - - - X

At Holy Stitch, we believe in empowering our students to not only learn but also share their knowledge and passion for sewing with others. Our unique "Student-to-Teacher" program allows dedicated individuals to transition from being students in our classes to becoming instructors themselves. Through this transformative journey, students deepen their understanding of various sewing techniques, hone their teaching skills, and gain invaluable experience in guiding others on their sewing adventures. By becoming teachers, they inspire and mentor the next generation of sewists, fostering a vibrant community of creativity and skill-sharing. This cycle of learning and teaching ensures that the art of sewing is passed down with enthusiasm and expertise, creating a legacy of textile artistry that spans generations.

OVERVIEW AND DESCRIPTION OF OFFERINGS

1. Collaborative Tote Bag Workshop:

This hands-on workshop allows participants to work together in a collaborative environment to create their own unique tote bags but from one canvas. Under the guidance of our expert instructors, teams will learn various sewing techniques and personalize their tote bags with custom designs, patterns, and embellishments. This activity fosters teamwork, creativity, and a sense of accomplishment as participants walk away with a practical and personalized item they crafted themselves all from one source but individually akin to our day to day.

2. General Sewing Classes:

Our general sewing classes are designed to impart essential sewing skills to participants at various levels of expertise. Whether you're a complete beginner or have some experience, our classes cater to different skill levels, from beginner to intermediate and advanced. Participants will learn techniques such as pattern reading, fabric cutting, stitching, and finishing, enabling them to tackle a wide range of sewing projects with confidence.

3. Custom Team Jackets:

Bring your team together and foster team spirit and unity through the creation of personalized team jackets, create a cohesive look and memory to go with it. Participants will have the opportunity to design and personalize their own jackets, choosing from a variety of fabrics, colors, and embellishments. This activity promotes team spirit, unity, and a sense of belonging, while also allowing individuals to express their creativity and personal style. Jackets can be provided by either party and can include hoodies, sweaters etc.

4. Collaborative Art Canvas:

In this unique and engaging activity, participants will work together to create a stunning collaborative art canvas. Using various art materials and techniques, teams will contribute their individual artistic expressions to a larger canvas, resulting in a vibrant and meaningful piece of art. This experience encourages creative thinking, collaboration, and the appreciation of diverse perspectives.

5. Print Your Own Merch/Swag:

Allow your team to unleash their creativity and design their own merch or swag items. Participants will have the opportunity to create custom-printed apparel, accessories, or promotional items using our state-of-the-art printing equipment. This activity fosters team bonding, personal expression, and a sense of pride in creating unique and memorable merchandise.
