Who is LiTT?

Love is the Truth

LiTT is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the healing power of love. While many nonprofits address the immediate needs of individuals in crisis, LiTT focuses on the underlying issues, aiming to resolve the limiting belief systems at the heart of these crises. LiTT recognizes a pervasive problem in today's society: more than one in three individuals over the age of 12 are affected by depression, suicide, anxiety, panic, and a lack of passion, purpose, or self-worth. This number is growing fast and LiTT is answering this call by offering tools not just for coping, but for transforming the limiting beliefs that contribute to internal disharmony and suffering and aids people in clearing negative programs, limiting beliefs and aiding in finding their purpose/passion and self-love.
