3. Objects

The charity's objectives are.

- c) promote such other charitable purposes as may from time to time be determined.

4. Powers

The CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the CIO has power to:

- (1) co-operate with other voluntary organisations, statutory authorities, and individuals.
- (2) establish or support a local forum of representatives of community groups, voluntary organisations, statutory authorities, and individuals involved in community work.
- (3) promote and develop or assist in the promotion and development of community organisations and community social enterprises in the area of benefit.
- (4) acquire and distribute funds and assist in the provision of grants to community organisations in the area of benefit.
- (5) arrange and provide for, either alone or with others, the holding of exhibitions, meetings, lectures, classes, seminars or training courses, and all forms of recreational and other leisure-time activities.
- (6) collect and disseminate information on all matters relating to the Objects, and to exchange such information with other bodies having similar objects whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

- (7) borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011, if it wishes to mortgage land,
- (8) buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use.
- (9) sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the CIO. In exercising this power, the CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (10) employ and remunerate staff as are necessary for conducting the work of the CIO. The CIO may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected people) and provided it complies with the conditions of that clause.
- (11) deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the CIO to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do so by the Trustee Act 2000.

5. Application of income and property

- 1. The income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
  - a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity.
  - b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 2. None of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of a dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a trustee from receiving:
  - a) a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity.
  - b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected people.

General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to charity.
- c) be employed by or receive any remuneration from the charity.
- d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity.

unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission (the Commission'). In this clause, a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

7. Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 of the Charities Act 2011.
- c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the charity trustee or connected person.

- e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or person connected to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

8. Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The charity and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 2(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

The maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (the supplier's) under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.

- a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances regarding the supply of the goods in question.
- b) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting
- c) with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
- e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.
- g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 5.

In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

- (a) 'The charity' includes any company in which the charity:

- (c) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
- (d) has the right to appoint one or more trustees to the board of the company.
- (e) 'Connected person' includes any person within the definition set out in clause 34 (Interpretation).

9. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

- (2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

If the CIO is wound up, the members of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

- 3. The trustees must apply for any remaining property or money:
  - a) directly for the objects.
  - b) by transfer to any charity or charities for purposes the same as or similar to the charity.
  - c) in such other manner as the Charity Commission for England and Wales ('the Commission') may approve in writing in advance.
- 4. The members may pass a resolution before or at the same time as the resolution to dissolve the charity specifying the manner in which the trustees are to apply the remaining property or assets of the charity and the trustees must comply with the resolution if it is consistent with paragraphs (a) - (c) inclusive in sub-clause (3) above.
- 5. In no circumstances shall the net assets of the charity be paid to or distributed among the members of the charity (except to a member that is itself a charity).

6. The trustees must notify the Commission promptly that the charity has been dissolved. If the trustees are obliged to send the charity's accounts to the Commission for the accounting period which ended before its dissolution, they must send the Commission to the charity's final accounts.

12. Amendment of constitution

  - b) No amendment may be made to alter the objects if the change undermines or works against the earlier objects of the charity.
  - c) No amendment may be made to clause 3 (Objects), 4 (Application of income and property), clause 5 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected people), clause 6 (Dissolution) or this clause without prior consent in writing of the Commission.

  - b. The trustees must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision.
  - c. The trustees must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The trustees' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final.

14. Termination of membership

Membership will be terminated if:
