Mother of Perpetual Help

Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been blessed and favored by God. You became not only the Mother of the Redeemer, but Mother of the redeemed as well. We come to you today as your loving children. Watch over us and take care of us. As you held the child Jesus in your loving arms, so take us in your arms. Be a mother ready at every moment to help us. For God who is mighty has done great things for you, and God's mercy is from age to age on those who love God. Intercede for us, dear Mother, in obtaining pardon for our sins, love for Jesus, final perseverance, and the grace always to call upon you, Mother of Perpetual Help. Amen.

If you, or someone you know, are interested in becoming Catholic, contact the Sacred Heart Office.

CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Advent Prayer

Come, Lord Jesus.

O God, you are great indeed.

Look upon us and reveal your glory, promised to Abraham and sent to us through David and his lineage.

Send us the warmth of your love, the light of your Word, the vision of your wisdom, and the comfort of your people.
Open our hearts in welcome and grant us your salvation.
Fill our minds with watchful hope and let us see your kindness.

Give us new life, the promise and joy of salvation.

May the glory of your Son dwell in our land forever.

We pray: Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

Treasures From Our Traditions

"People in love make signs of love," wrote our bishops in a document guiding the renewal of liturgical music. They were not merely urging us to sing at Mass, but suggesting that the song itself is a sign of the love of Christ. Love never expressed dies, as we know from experience. Flowers for no special reason, a caress, a hug, a turn around the dance floor, a note on the pillow or in the lunchbox, the aroma of fresh bread in the kitchen, all are signs of love's vitality.

A significant treasure in our Catholic tradition is the place of the sacraments as signs of Christ's love. We can trace the sacraments back to scriptural sources, through centuries of history. They are woven through family tradition and our own life story. Sacraments are the way Christ makes signs of love for the Church. For twenty centuries, God has spoken to us in the arena of the sacraments, and we have responded.

For the next year of "Treasure" essays, we will explore the story of sacraments: their sources, their signs and rituals, and the way Christ nurtures and sustains us as we encounter him, the companion on our journey who loves us and faithfully makes signs of that love.

Happy New Year! Wait, before you hit that snooze button, read on. "Stay awake!" It's the official start of the next Liturgical Year in the Church. The fireworks that kick off this tradition start with one candle, one flame, one hope. God renewed the world through Noah and his family. The world sounded very dark back then. Noah and his family carried the light in the darkness. We, too, carry that light. Each year, our diocese needs to renew its commitment to the stewardship way of life. As faithful disciples, we need to RESPOND as Noah and his family did and accept God's offer to RESCUE us. God didn't build the Ark for Noah. Noah put in the effort with his family. God is not going to put in our effort to carry on Stewardship as a way of life. We need to RESPOND to our parish's efforts. Don't sleep through another year of stewardship opportunities. Try something new and don't hit snooze!
