Valderrama G.C. This is a tough Trent-Jones course, often ranked #1 course on the European mainland, hosted the 1997 Ryder Cup match. Valderrama has two prevailing winds: the poniente from the land, which in summer can be very hot, and the levante from the Mediterranean, which brings a cooler sea breeze. The changed conditions, depending on which wind is blowing, add variety to a golf course that is already rich in shot values. Forecaddie is mandatory, the rate is 60€ + gratuity and must be paid in cash on the day of play.
