806 ADVANTAGE PAC ANNOUNCES PRO-BUSINESS ENDORSEMENTS
FOR MAY PRIMARY ELECTIONS & U.S. HOUSE DISTRICT 19 RACE

LUBBOCK, TEXAS – The 806 Advantage PAC, a pro-business, pro-Lubbock political action committee, today announced its endorsements following candidate interviews for the February 2026 Primary Election.

The 806 Advantage PAC is focused on electing candidates who support a strong business climate and advancing policies that promote economic growth, job creation, and community prosperity. The PAC also works to educate voters on issues impacting the local business community and the long-term success of Lubbock. Governed by a board of local leaders representing healthcare, agriculture, ranching, restaurants, homebuilding, retail, oil & gas, and locally-owned commercial businesses, the 806 Advantage PAC conducted interviews with candidates seeking local office and evaluated their positions on pro-business policies, regulatory certainty, and economic development.

Following this process, the 806 Advantage PAC is proud to endorse the following candidates:

- Mark McBrayer for City of Lubbock Mayor
- Christy Martinez-Garcia for City of Lubbock City Council District 1
- David Bruegel for City of Lubbock City Council District 3
- Dr. Jennifer Wilson for City of Lubbock City Council District 5
- Trey Strong for Lubbock Cooper ISD Place 3
- Shelbie Nacole for Lubbock Cooper ISD Place 6
- Tom Sell for U.S. House District 19

“These candidates recognize the critical role local government plays in driving a strong business environment,” said Dana Madison, Chair of the 806 Advantage PAC. “Their focus on common-sense, pro-business leadership will help keep Lubbock on a path of sustained growth and opportunity.”

The 806 Advantage PAC encourages all business owners, employers, and community members to register to vote and participate in the upcoming primary election.
