COMMUNITY TITLE MANAGEMENT

A community title scheme refers to a situation where the owner of a lot resides in a community where shared common areas exist with separate strata title within. These common areas could include things like roads, walkways, parklands, driveways, and other facilities. The community operates under a shared management statement. A community title is often used to maintain a high level of local amenities or services for the local residents. The title typically refers to larger estates featuring multiple lots. These lots may not all be residential and sometimes include retail and commercial outlets as well. These are very complex to manage.
