These clinics educate people about their rights and empower them to handle certain basic legal issues without the help of a lawyer. Some workshops are empowerment workshops. Participants receive guidance and paper work (Not all) necessary to assist them with filing the necessary for the courtroom. Clinic scheduling may change without notification if participation is limited. DCTS host and facilitate monthly or quarterly at Legal offices, churches, community centers, and other locations throughout surrounding North Carolina counties. All Clinics in conjunction with NC Legal aid are free of charge. However, other clinics may have a fee. Advance registration is required due to space limitations at some locations. Participates receive general legal information ONLY. No specific legal advice is given on individual cases. Although, periodically DCTS has on hand a staffer with legal background that can directed you appropriately.
