After considering the facts obtained from its investigation, the Board of Directors shall determine whether there has been a violation of the Section 4 Declaration or the Restrictive Covenants. If the Board of Directors determines that there has been a violation of the Section 4 Declaration or the Restrictive Covenants, it shall send written notice to the Member in violation of the Section 4 Declaration or the Restrictive Covenants regarding the violation which sets forth the appropriate actions that must be taken to resolve the violation and shall take all other appropriate actions necessary to remedy the violation. A copy of all written notices sent to the Member alleged to be in violation of the Section 4 Declaration or the Restrictive Covenants shall be sent to the identifying Member.

Section 5. Unsatisfactory Results. If the actions taken by the Board of Directors do not resolve the grievance to the satisfaction of the identifying Member or if the Board of Directors has not provided written notice to the identifying Member within thirty (30) days from the date that the written submission regarding the grievance was either placed in the mail or hand-delivered to the Board of the Directors, then the identifying Member may pursue any and all remedies available under the Section 4 Declaration or the Restrictive Covenants.

Section 6. Withdrawal of Grievance. An identifying Member may withdraw a grievance at any time by giving written notice of the withdrawal to the Board of Directors. Notwithstanding the withdrawal of the grievance, the Board of Directors may choose to continue its investigation of the alleged violation of the Section 4 Declaration or the Restrictive Covenants and pursue any and all remedies available under the Section 4 Declaration or the Restrictive Covenants.
