Sunday, October 25

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Exodus 22:20–26

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 18:2–3, 3–4, 47, 51

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c–10

Gospel:Matthew 22:34–40

This Sunday's message centers on love as the fulfillment of the Law:

- Love God completely and love your neighbor as yourself.
- Care for the vulnerable, act justly, and live faithfully - even in hardship.
- Love is not abstract—it is shown in concrete actions toward those in need.

Reflection Focus

- Love in action: The First Reading's commands (e.g., returning the cloak before sunset) show love as tangible and timely.
- Unity of commandments: The Gospel binds love of God and love of neighbor, making them inseparable.
- Faith in hardship: The Second Reading reminds us that faith is lived out in daily life, even when difficult.

In summary: The Church invites the faithful to reflect on how love for God and love for others are the heart of the Law, and to live out that love through compassion, justice, and faithful witness.
