

May 4

Redeem the Land

Awake, US of A, awake to righteousness!

In the name of Jesus (John 16:23) we come boldly to the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy and find grace for our nation, the United States of America, our leaders, our people, our land, and all men (Heb. 4:16). In Christ (John 16:23) the author and finisher of our faith (Heb. 12:2), we pray the Lord will direct the hearts of our leaders into the love of God and into the patience of Christ (2 Thess. 3:5). Let our leaders endure long, be patient and kind, not envy nor boil over with jealousy; not be boastful or vainglorious nor display themselves haughtily. Let our leaders not parade themselves, not be puffed up, conceited, arrogant, and inflated with pride, nor behave rudely, unmannerly or act unbecomingly. May our leaders not seek their own, nor insist on their own rights or their own way, not be self-seeking; nor be provoked; not touchy or fretful or resentful, taking no account of the evil done to them and paying no attention to a suffered wrong, never thinking evil. Let our leaders love the people and the land they represent and act accordingly. Praise God (Luke 19:37)! In Jesus' name so be it (John 16:23).