

COMMUNION DECLARATION -VOWS

Communion is the act of renewing in our minds and hearts the vows of our covenant with God which we receive through the blood of Jesus Christ. It is like a marriage couple renewing their vows. As we take the Bread of Life we need to receive the blessings of our covenant with God. We are to do this in remembrance of what Jesus did for us, not just remembering the act of dying but the actual covenant He died to give to us. A covenant is two part. Jesus did his part and we need to do our part. Our part is to receive. Jesus is the bread of life, and as we eat his body which was broken for us, we receive life into our mortal bodies. Take up the cup of blessing, the cup of the covenant, His blood, and as we drink it, we renew our marriage vows to Jesus Christ the bridegroom.

It Is Written

1 Corinthians 11:24-25 (NKJV)

and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me." In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

COMMUNION DECLARATION

We vow we will:

RECEIVE life and blessing instead of death and cursing

RECEIVE life and the law of life instead of the law of sin and death.

RECEIVE righteousness instead of sin

RECEIVE justification instead of condemnation

RECEIVE divine health instead of sickness and disease

We declare the Holy Dpirit is quickening our bodies

RECEIVE plenty instead of lack

RECEIVE freedom instead of bondage

RECEIVE joy instead of mourning and depression

RECEIVE peace instead of fear and worry

RECEIVE the heavens opening up for us and an outpouring of blessing and protection and we will bring our tithes to God and as we give, we will receive.

RECEIVE the divine nature and escape the corruption of this world.

We will choose life and blessing instead of death and cursing

We will be blessed and we will be a blessing!

We renew our vows and we receive, renew and remember our covenant by the blood of Jesus Christ. We remember You Lord Jesus and your unfailing love, and we remember what you did for us. We give thanks to your Holy name.
