When Nehemiah returned to build the wall, he was mocked and ridiculed, him and those with him was threatened and attacked, injustice in the land delayed the work and his enemies set traps for him, yet God prevailed, and the wall was completed. We pray and decree so shall the wall at our borders be completed in the United State of America.

Hear us, our God, for President Trump and we the people of the United States are being mocked and ridiculed. May their scoffing and taunts fall back on their own heads and may they themselves become plunder in a land of their captivity. Nehemiah 4:4
