

The Claremont Hotel DJ Comp 2017/18

ENTRY TERMS

The Claremont Hotel DJ Comp or "The Comp". Submissions are open from 9am Thursday 9th November 2017 until 6pm Tuesday 5th December 2017

Playlists are a sample of your own mixing. Sample mix should be no longer than 20 minutes. Mixes must be your own and may be used to vote or promote you or your heat or the Comp in General

Shortlist submissions will be chosen by a panel of Claremont and Club Bay View DJ's and the Venue representatives. The shortlist will be grouped in University and Non-University Teams for the Heats according to the application with winners to be picked on the night of the Heat by the crowd, panel of judges according to your ability to play a suitable mix to the crowd, their reaction, the amount of attendees you bring in support and by the panel directly. Heat Winners progress to the Final

All entrants agree to provide the mp3 sample mix or Spotify link to be available to play at the venue using Crowd DJ in the lead up and to promote the event (with full credit given to the DJ and the copyright owners as applicable according to APRA). The public vote/response is an important factor. A good DJ is also a Promoter. Prizes will be published closer to the first heat, but the Major Prize is a $2000 voucher to Store DJ, Entourage DJ Riders of Drinks and Passes to assist with promoting as well as self-managed guest lists for same is also provided to Heat participants

WINNER TERMS

Those awarded set times at the are required to: Prove you can mix live on equipment at the venue prior to any set. Use their own headphones for their set time and your own music source (USB, Laptop etc). No controllers are to be used, they must mix on the equipment live. RSA and generally responsibly behaved and professional and comply with the rules and requests of any staff and management. It is up to you to find your own transportation to and from the venue and to Drink responsibly if at all. The prize is not transferable or redeemable for cash.

No replacement will be offered if the Heats or Prizes cannot be claimed or attended on the stipulated dates.

