

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Team AmeriVet Returns at Martinsville Speedway with Burt Myers for the Cook Out 400, Backed by C3 Skids.

Mooresville, NC (March 8, 2025) – Team AmeriVet is set to make its highly anticipated return to the track on March 30, 2025, in the Cook Out 400 at Martinsville Speedway. Burt Myers will once again take the wheel of the #50 Team AmeriVet Chevrolet, bringing his short track experience to the team.

This event marks a continuation of Team AmeriVet's mission to support America's veterans both on and off the track. The team's 50 Vets a Week program will be in full force, with the support of great partners, the team will relieve $250,000 in veteran debt during the Martinsville race weekend.

Backing Team AmeriVet for this event is C3 Skids, a leader in the pressure washing, pest control, and Industrial Spray Equipment industry. With locations in Daytona Beach, FL and Concord, NC, C3 Skids provides top-tier equipment, chemicals, and education with 100% financing available. Their dedicated team of knowledgeable professionals ensures customers receive the best solutions tailored to their budget and needs.

"We're thrilled to partner with Team AmeriVet and support their incredible work in the veteran community," said Casey Caudill, CEO of C3 Skids. "Our commitment to customer service and innovation aligns perfectly with the values of Team AmeriVet, and we look forward to an exciting race at Martinsville."

Driver Burt Myers: "I am super excited to get another chance at competing in the NASCAR Cup Series. Martinsville is one of the most historic tracks in racing and means a lot to my family. Special thanks to Team AmeriVet and C3 Skids for giving me this opportunity."

Team AmeriVet continues its 2025 campaign with the support of partners like C3 Skids, ForgiveCo, AmeriVet Securities, Chevrolet, Citrusafe Cleaners, and ECR Engines. The team remains focused on building performance on the track while making a meaningful impact in the lives of veterans. There are still associate sponsorship spots available for March 30th.
