- PRESENTATION – 1 – 10 points

A Starry Night in Paris. Paris Starz was born in 2010 in the very first apartment she ever had on her own. She and a friend would spend hours experimenting with makeup, watching drag videos on YouTube, and completely falling in love with the art of drag. Before long, we knew we wanted to create personas of our own, so we started brainstorming drag names. Paris glanced over at her Senior Prom invitation, and it read, “A Starry Night in Paris”. Instantly, she said, “What about Paris Stars?” Her friend immediately gasped and said, “OMG, but with a Z!” From that moment on, the name stuck, Paris Starz.

For the presentation category, Paris wants to take it back to the start: A Starry Night in Paris. Envision a journey through the enchanting streets of Paris. Being surrounded by the stunning fashion, blooming flowers, timeless art, amazing cuisine, and rich culture. Create the magic of Paris, even something as literal as Starz, and bring it to the Rose Room!

If anyone needs any clarification or a better explanation, please contact Paris directly!

- PERSONAL INTERVIEW – 1 – 10 points

Contestants will meet individually with the panel of judges who will question them on anything from personal issues to their professional life. - ON-STAGE QUESTION – 1 – 30 points

This category will be limited to the top five at the National Pageant only. It is not a category at the local, state or regional level. The on-stage question will be collectively written by the judges and each of the top 5 will be asked the same question.
