The Journey Home

Introduction

If you have happened upon this booklet, it is not by chance or as the world would say coincidence. There are no coincidences in these last days, rather, incidences which have been created by our Heavenly Father. Yes, it is your true Father who has brought you to this point in time in your earthly journey. These are unprecedented times such as mankind has not seen since the days of old. The magnitude of evil which has now spread throughout the world is intensifying and so, it is time for you to understand what is the reality. Not that which is based on perception. Yes, that which mortal man perceives to be true.

If time was not of the essence our Father would not be revealing what He is at this point-in-time. However, His timing is precise and so it is the time is NOW! Our Heavenly Father loves you more than words could possibly express. It is our hope as you delve into the following pages you will embrace what we are about to share.

Our Heavenly Father is the Ambassador of Truth and as such is the only way to the truth that will indeed prepare you for what is to come! We only ask that you keep an open mind as you read the following pages for this is the reality and there is no time to waste!

You are about to embark on a journey like none other you have experienced in this lifetime.

Father,

We pray you will have the eyes to see that which needs to be seen and the ears to hear the truth. Yes, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me God!

Chapter One

Who Am I?

Let's get this straight right off the bat. You are a child of God. Yes, you were created in our Father's image. As a matter of fact, you are unique and one of a kind.

Contrary to what mankind would have you think, you are not fully human as your soul is the most important part of your being. Your physical body in which you find your soul residing in is merely a temporary residence which allows your soul to visit the earth for a specific amount of time, for in truth, you are a citizen of heaven. This is where you are from and where, indeed, you will return when your time on earth is completed.

Your soul is history in the making as your name is registered in our Heavenly Father's Golden Book which has kept a record of not only who you are but what has transpired over your eternal life.

The definition of eternal is: lasting or existing forever, without end. Humans define lifetime as the period of time that someone lives or that something functions.

Man, then measures a lifetime based on the duration of one's physical body. To many when the physical body no longer functions life then ceases to be.

Yet, nothing could be farther from the truth for you are not the sum-total of your physical body, but rather, you are a great deal more than what much of mankind acknowledges to be true.

Your physical body upon arrival on earth relies on the five senses in-order to function while on earth. Without these five senses your physical self would cease to be. As important as these senses are to the human condition, they do not attend to the needs of your soul. They do not attend, in essence, to the most important part of who you truly are.

In essence, you are a spiritual being and as such capable of much more than what man acknowledges. Man relies on the heart to survive for without the heart his body could not exist.

Your soul understands who you truly are and the true purpose for your earthy existence. Much the same as the physical body relies on the five senses in-order to exist on earth, your soul is equipped with a Divine sense man refers to as sixth sense. This sense, when exercised, is manna for the soul for this allows the soul to communicate with His Heavenly Father. Yet, much of man does not pay attention to this sixth sense as it is not what the physical body requires to sustain itself. So, in-actuality, man is equipped with six senses not five which is often not acknowledged as such.

This sixth sense provides the soul with a way and a means to communicate with His Heavenly Father. For in truth, what kind of a Father would send His beloved on a journey without a way and a means to communicate with Him? Now that you are understanding you are indeed a great deal more than the body you reside in, the question then is why am I here in the first place?

Chapter Two

Why Am I here?

If I am the spiritual being that you say I am why do I reside on earth and what purpose could there possibly be for my being here in the first place?

First of all, you must understand you are here on earth because you chose to be! Earth provides an opportunity for each soul to advance in his soulful education. Those who reside in heaven refer to earth as The School of Life. No soul is ever forced to attend this earthly school, yet, most desire to do so as it provides the optimum opportunity to become more fully enlightened in the ways of our Heavenly Father.

The School of Life was designed for this specific purpose. Every soul, prior to his arrival on earth, is allowed to choose the family and circumstances which will enable him to learn those lessons will further his soul's education. Depending on what the soul is trying to achieve some of these circumstances could seem most undesirable. Yet, they will provide the soul with the optimum opportunity to accomplish that which his soul is trying to complete.

Because these circumstances could indeed present many difficult challenges for each soul, it is necessary they do not remember their prior existence in heaven for when difficult times would arise the desire to return home would overwhelm any desire the soul would have to remain on earth.

The School of Life on earth has existed since the beginning of time and up until now it has served its purpose well. Yet, our Heavenly Father knew there would come a time when the School of Life would cease to be. He knew there would come a time when far too many souls would be unable to complete that which they had hoped to accomplish as Satan and his legion would do all they could to captivate the heart and mind of man disavowing all that was of the Divine. As a result, many a soul would lose their way in these last days. Those who once revered the Father would now be captivated with that which was of the world paying little if no attention to that which their soul was desperately seeking.

Part Two

Chapter Three

The Time Is Now!

You have been given a brief overview of who you truly are and now you will begin understanding why you are here in these times and what your purpose is.

As previously explained there would come a time when the School of Life would cease to be. The reason being it would no longer be able to be used as it was originally intended as there were far too many souls who were placed in harm's way. You must understand Satan had proclaimed to the Heavenly Father there would come a time when the soul would no longer seek the Divine but instead would look to that which was of the world. Many as a result would be easily enticed into joining forces with Satan and the multitude of demons roaming the earth who would ensure they held no affinity for that which was of God.

Our Heavenly Father, knowing this time was vastly approaching, knew the truth would need to be revealed! No longer could mankind continue to ignore his true reason for being and yes, his true nature! Man must come to understand he is indeed a spiritual being who was capable of far more than what mankind had acknowledged him to be. As a spiritual being man would come to find he indeed had access to a great deal more than he had originally understood in the material world.

Every soul who resides on earth is here because he has chosen to be here in these times. To say you have a soulful purpose is to put it mildly. For all who reside on earth will become an active participant in the greatest battle ever known to mankind.

Many of you possess an inner knowing which you are now beginning to understand. Up until now your life has been a sum-total of the choices you have made while attending the School of Life. In essence, you have formulated your own personal lesson plan. These lessons, along with the natural gifts and talents you are endowed with, will provide you with the weapons that will enable you to see through the veil of deception Satan had so masterfully used to capture a multitude of unsuspecting souls.

Those who reside on earth are being awakened as though from a deep sleep. They are discovering much that had not been revealed before.

There are many signs which have been foretold which would alert man the time was approaching when the world man had once known would no longer exist.

“Time is of the essence as all must now prepare the way for My kingdom to reign on earth as it is in heaven.”-Holy Spirit

Chapter 4

What Role Do I Play In These Times?

“Many times, I have said the meek shall inherit the earth. The Bible defines meek as: a calm temper, not easily provoked, trust in God to direct the outcome of events. Meek, however, is not the same as timid.

Webster defines timid as: showing a lack of courage, easily frightened.

You have an inner strength as a spiritual being for “He that is in Me is greater than He that is of the world. You have within you all that you need for all that I am you are.”

You simply need to respond now to that which My Spirit is guiding you to. You will know what to do as it will be that which you are naturally enthusiastic about. When you do so you will experience an unending energy for the task at hand. Now that you understand what you have at your disposal you must trust you will have what you need when you need it.

*Because you do not respond through the ego you along with many others will help prepare the way for My return. Together, you will use your combined talents against the many weapons Satan will use to destroy My people! As a spiritual being you now understand you have access to two different realms. Yes, now you too understand you can move in and out of these realms just the same as Satan and his demons have always done. Your heightened awareness will enable you to sense when the enemy is near and as such you will be able to defend yourself against the weapons he would try to use against you.”

Chapter 5

The Help Mate

“I, the Holy Spirit, as your Commander-In-Chief, will guide you in the pathway to victory. I will attend to your every need. There is no question I will not answer. You only but need to ask! In-order to soar with the eagles, it is crucial you hold on to the wings of the dove.

*There of course are many angelic angels along with St. Michael and a multitude of spirits who have been and continue to fight against Satan and his legion. As I have said you have the capacity to fight on two fronts as well. Those of you who reside on earth are now called to play an active role against the forces of evil on this earth. When you listen to the still voice within you will know what to do and when to do it. In this manner you will not waste needless energy on that which will not produce the results I desire.

Trust and faith must go hand in hand in these last days. Trust in me, therefore, as I trust in you. You have been given the eyes to see that which mortal man cannot see. In the stillness you as a spiritual being have the ears to hear what I am saying.*

This is a battle between principalities. This is true yet, you will be called to set an example for others to follow. Together, we will prepare the way for My kingdom to reign on earth. Old ways must now give way to new ways. These new ways come as-a-result of that which I have revealed to you now.

I have formed a covenant with My people and it will not be broken. Yes, dear hearts, I am guiding My people back home. A home which is soon to reside on earth and My kingdom will indeed reign Supreme.

There is a new world on the horizon! A world in which you will play an integral part. Together, we will defeat the enemy once and for all. Go forth then knowing we will indeed be victorious There is no mountain too high nor valley too deep which we will not overcome."

Chapter 6

The Reality

“The veil has been lifted and now you must no longer engage or become preoccupied with self. For self is merely the sum-total of that which has formed the person you as a human have identified with. In short, it has defined your character; that which others have come to know.

Yet, now you are being shown the reality. That which is the essence of your being. The key word here is being. Pay attention as you are a spiritual being which is the heartbeat of your soul. I have removed the veil so you will clearly see the reality of who you are and what you are capable of through Me. I am in you and you are in Me and together we are one in My Spirit. Listen closely now! All that I have you have. When you fully accept this reality, you will experience that which those who identify strictly with self do not avail themselves of!

This is an energy man would define as super natural yet, as a spiritual being it is as natural as the very air you breath! I am the breath of life for all who trust in Me. I and I alone gave you the physical bodies which enabled you to temporarily reside on earth. Now I am asking you all to give your physical self-back to Me. I have your back! I want you to now be unencumbered by that which has kept you from seeing that which is the reality.

As events unfold it is crucial you release all that has kept you from utilizing all that you are capable of through our Father as a spiritual being. You are created in our Father's image! This is the reality! When you embrace this reality you will have access to all that will enable you to soar on eagles wings! The choice is yours for this is the biggest decision you will make in your life-time. One is eternal and the other is but a fleeting moment in time! Choose wisely my precious!"-Holy Spirit

Conclusion

When you turn to our Father with your prayerful concerns, you must trust his answer will always be that which brings about right resolution. That which is in the best and highest interest of all concerned. Therefore, there is no prayer which will not be answered. Sometimes the answer is no and yes, sometimes there is a delay. No matter what the case may be you simply need to trust all is being tended to. It is a wise person, therefore, who learns to give thanks in all things for you can then be assured you indeed are one of the meek who will inherit the earth as you accept “thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven”.

May God Bless and keep you safe on this most important journey,

Joyfully,
Wendy and Jillian

My Shadow My Soul

I have a little shadow
that goes in and out with me.
I have a little shadow that so
longs to be set free.

The shadow is my soul who follows
me around,

In truth he is here to guide me toward that which my soul has found.

The shadow knows the truth and gently tries to guide me on my way,

For as a citizen of heaven he knows this is not where I will stay.

My soul understands my purpose where as often times I do not,

For I am here to learn that which my soul has since been taught.

How my soul longs to expand his learning in ways I do not yet understand,

And so the shadow guides me gently taking me by the hand.

I will surely find my purpose as he guides me on my way,

For now I truly understand this is not where I will stay.

When my time on earth is over together hand in hand,

we will go for the journey is almost over and now I truly know.

I have accomplished my soul's purpose and together
we can rest.

For as a citizen of heaven we have finally passed
the test,

And so my soul will guide me as he shows me where
to go.
