Run For Your Wife* Promises Non-Stop Laughter at Myers Dinner Theatre!

HILLSBORO, Indiana—March 1, 2020 –The second production in Myers Dinner Theatre’s 24th Anniversary season will be the hilarious farce , Run For Your Wife, opening March 6 at 12:00, and running through March 22 at 5:00.

A taxi driver gets away with having two wives in different areas of London because of his irregular work schedule. His wives love him because he’s the sweetest, most lovable and cheerful husband in the world. Until one day he does something heroic by saving an old bag lady from two young muggers. John’s ideal existence is immediately threatened by the Press, the Police, and his best friend Stanley, who, in attempting to help John cover up his marital deception, only achieves further mayhem. Run For Your Wife opened on Broadway at the Virginia Theatre in 1989, directed by and starring playwright Ray Cooney. It ran for 52 performances, before closing and evolving into a staple of Regional and Dinner Theatres across the country.

This hilarious farce will be directed by Matthew C. Scott of Orbisonia, PA, who recently directed MDT’s 2019 holiday production of A Christmas Carol Musical. The production will feature an almost entirely alumni cast, including Jacob Ault of Rossville, Illinois, Travis Bird of Decatur, Martin Flowers of Nappanee, Don Hart of Columbia City, Sarah Hayes of Clinton, Iowa, Jason Ryan Wallace of Lafayette, and MDT Artistic Director Jeremy Littlejohn as Stanley. Joining this outstanding Ensemble will be Harli Cooper of Louisville, Kentucky, who is making her MDT debut.
