SPREAD THE LOVE!

Some view Valentine's Day as a romantic holiday, and some hate it due to being jaded in the past. No matter what your opinion of the actual day is- I challenge you to look for a way that you can spread some love to our community, organizations, and local businesses this month. We all live in small communities, which means that every little bit helps. There are TONS of opportunities to volunteer and contribute that will make the efforts of those trying to make a difference more effective and will create a bigger impact overall. Have a Happy Valentine's Day- and SPREAD THE LOVE!!

Sammie George- BCDF Executive Director

LOVE, GROW, SERVE

Building community is a MAJOR focus of the BCDF this year. Without a community we have nothing. It takes the involvement of EVERYONE to make gains toward a brighter tomorrow. This month we encourage you to actively participate in community events outside those that have become your "norms"; find a NEW way to volunteer and get involved!

Opportunities for Involvement

Youth Engagement

Internships are a great way to introduce the youth of a community to the opportunities that exist in the "real world". Being a mentor is fulfilling, and it helps develop the future workforce.

Community Action Agency & Local Chamber of Commerce

Volunteer and make a difference!! These local organizations are an excellent way for you to give back to your community. Get involved, help plan community events, contribute to community problem solving, and help spread the word about all the opportunities that exist in Bent County!

Other Volunteer Opportunities:

Bent County Historical Society
Community Recreation Center
Bent County Senior Center
Local School Districts

"You don't live in an economy; you live in a community- build your community first."
