APRIL SHOWERS BRING MAY FLOWERS!

Sometimes it may feel like you're in the middle of a storm that has no escape. Your business may be struggling, you're stressing about paying bills, and your family is depending on you. What you must remember is that after the rain comes beautiful flowers. If you can weather this storm, you will come out of it more vibrant and stronger than ever. You must also remember that rarely is there ever just one flower in a field. You are surrounded by a support system that can help you through the rain- don't forget to use your resources.

Sammie George- BCDF Executive Director

April 4 Community Round Table

This Community Round Table will be held at the Bent County Community Center from 5:30 PM – 6:30 PM. The BCDF has been working closely with the LAHS Ag Class, as well as the LAES art classes to provide a fun, interactive, and engaging activity for attendees. There will be child care available on-site for children ages 2-10 with snacks, crafts, and a movie included. EVERY COMMUNITY MEMBER IS INVITED!!

Meeting discussion topics will include:

- What are the characteristics of a healthy community?
- What new businesses would benefit you/your family?
- What activities are you interested in?
- How can you get involved in this community?

Revitalize the Lower Ark Valley

Rawlings Heritage Center: April 6 from 10am-12pm

Community members will have the opportunity to discuss what works for Bent County, and where we can be doing more with our neighbors and local leadership- in regard to the development of the Fort Lyon campus. There will be continental breakfast during the discussion.

“Sometimes when things are falling apart, they may actually be falling into place.”
