An Action "Thrill Ride of the Year" through Miami!

Meet NIKKI. She and her boyfriend leave a small Alabama town after answering an ad for World Famous EXPOSURE Models heading for the bright lights of South Beach in search of fame and fortune.

MODELS WANTED!

Meet SETH (Corey Feldman). Owner of EXPOSURE and his business partner Levine Cosmedicals are developing a new skin creme "LePonce we put the model in you" as it becomes apparent in the un-regulated modeling industry nothing is as it seems as models go missing and what is really happening to them is beyond your imagination!

NIKKI and SETH collide as she discovers another world behind his empire where nothing is as it seems and when trapped, becomes her alter ego "Nikki Nascar" as the Country Girl takes down the players in the high stakes fashion modeling industry in a final climax you've got to see to believe!
