Michael J. Schneider is a nationally recognized attorney with over forty-five years of experience pursuing justice for clients in Alaska. Our firm diligently represents our clients' interests in obtaining exceptional verdicts and settlements in complex civil injury, wrongful death, brain injury, aviation, and major damage cases.

In 2019 Mr. Schneider was inducted into the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers (ACTL). As of July 2023, there are ten ACTL fellows in the Alaska chapter.

Mr. Schneider is a charter member and past President of the Alaska Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates (A.B.O.T.A.). The mission of ABOTA is to preserve the constitutional vision of equal justice for all Americans and to preserve our civil justice system for future generations. Educating other attorneys in the art of trial advocacy has always been the goal of ABOTA. Mr. Schneider has been a presenter at AMasters in Trial, a program sponsored by ABOTA. It is an honor to be selected and chosen to serve as an ABOTA member.

Mr. Schneider is a President's club member of the American Association for Justice (AAJ) into 2023, and a former state delegate. He has also served as Alaska's representative to the national AAJ Board of Governors. He is an active member of the Alaska Association for Justice (former president and former board member). He has spoken publicly, written, testified before the legislature and lobbied extensively regarding the liability insurance crisis. He is the former editor of the Alaska Bar Rag and a contributor on tort and insurance law topics. He enjoys Martindale-Hubbell's highest legal ability and ethical standards rating - AAV@ (Very High to Preeminent) and is listed in the publication, The Best Lawyers in America. Mr. Schneider was selected as the 2018 Lawyer of the Year in Alaska by Best Lawyers. In 2002, he was presented with the Board of Governors Professionalism Award by the Alaska Bar Association in recognition of exemplary conduct in his association with the public, his colleagues and the legal community.

Mike is an avid and experienced outdoorsman, bush pilot and bowhunter. His passion for these activities is exceeded only by his love for his son, Matt, and his interest in the law.
