

Clans And Scottish Societies Of Canada (CASSOC)

The aims and objectives of CASSOC are to advance Scottish Cultural Heritage in Canada by: Fostering the co-operation and communication between Scottish federations, clans, societies and groups encompassing all those interested in Scottish Culture and Heritage. Initiating and co-ordinating projects plus undertakings in Scottish Culture and Heritage such as: Preservation of Scottish and Scottish-Canadian history, culture, language and fine arts.

Research into any related matters. Liaison with other Scottish groups and organizations wherever located. Provisioning of offices, cultural centres, libraries, historical museums and research facilities. For CASSOC, Scottish Cultural Heritage is inclusive of traditional Highland, Island and Lowland cultures, whether in Scotland, Canada or wherever Scottish Culture may be expressed. History and Activities: The beginning of CASSOC was at a 1975 meeting which included members of an earlier 'The Scots Federation of Ontario' group plus numerous clans, societies and associations.

For more information, visit www.cassoc.ca