SOUTH CAROLINA

The South Carolina Numismatic Association has recently formed the SCNA College of Integrated Numismatics (C.O.I.N.). SCNA’s mission has always been to promote and preserve our great hobby, through awareness and education, both regionally and nationally. This new college meets educational needs in SC and many neighboring States. SCNA C.O.I.N. will provide affordable, one-day classes without the expensive journey to schools outside our region. Classes will commence at our 2025 convention and will continue annually every October. We hope you and your club will consider supporting this program. This college is in its infancy, so expect great things to come! Bill Latour has been appointed as Dean of Education and Stefanie Durham has been appointed as Dean of Admissions. For admission questions, e-mail: durham.stefanie@gmail.com. For course schedules, information, costs, and applications, go to our website, SC-NA.org, and click on the SCNA C.O.I.N logo or contact me at your convenience. Randy Clark Pres SCNA 843.367.0141

Sumter Coin Club- celebrated a “Trifecta” for meeting attendance in Feb 2026. Three consecutive record setting months: Dec 54, Jan 59, Feb 62! A new club record for a monthly meeting. We also appreciated one ANA renewal as well as one new Sumter CC member. Our rolling 12-month attendance average increased by 1 to a fantastic 46! Past president, Glenn Heimbarger, presented the educational program “Making Cents at the San Francisco Mint” and it was enjoyed by all. Senior YN Hampton Moore filled in for Coach Wilson as facilitator for our “YN Roundtable” session in with 6 YNs attending. This month we have a new website at www.sumtercoinclub.org! We will continue using Facebook as our primary day-to-day information center (“Sumter Coin Club”)—please visit and follow us. At this writing (2/23), the ANA National Money Show in Savannah GA has started its 3-day countdown and many of us from the SCC cannot wait to attend this event less than 2.5 hours from Sumter. Our March 17 meeting is our annual “Homecoming” meeting with extra time for what we call, “GRIN & GRIP”, an educational program on Paper Money Lingo, and an extended auction. Please feel free to contact us at sumtercoinclub@gmail.com. If in SC just before Labor Day, we invite you to our annual Sumter Coin and Currency Show, Aug 28-29, 2026 (56 tables sold out).
