SOUTH CAROLINA

The South Carolina Numismatic Association has recently formed the SCNA College of Integrated Numismatics (C.O.I.N.). SCNA's mission has always been to promote and preserve our great hobby, through awareness and education, both regionally and nationally. This new college meets educational needs in SC and many neighboring States. SCNA C.O.I.N. will provide affordable, one-day classes without the expensive journey to schools outside our region. Classes will commence at our 2025 convention and will continue annually every October. We hope you and your club will consider supporting this program. This college is in its infancy, so expect great things to come! Bill Latour has been appointed as Dean of Education and Stefanie Durham has been appointed as Dean of Admissions. For admission questions, e-mail: durham.stefanie@gmail.com. For course schedules, information, costs, and applications, go to our website, SC-NA.org, and click on the SCNA C.O.I.N logo or contact me at your convenience. Randy Clark Pres SCNA 843.367.0141

Camden SC Coin Club – met on Tuesday July 28th. We had a good summer attendance and met at the Lugoff Nissan conference room. Most of the meeting was about the upcoming Fall show on Sept 18-19. 40 dealers and 80 tables are signed up. The show will still have the hourly silver giveaway and the daily gold giveaway. Also, a 50/50 raffle both days. A new flyer was presented for review. The main sponsors are the City of Camden, Kershaw County and Lugoff Nissan. The education program was on the Flowing Hair Silver Dollar and was a history of the first mint, mint directors, engravers and production from 1794 to 1804. The club meets the 4th Tuesday of each month at 7 PM in the Lugoff Nissan conference room. We reviewed the prospective costs and projected revenues for our next coin show on Sept 18-19. The new schematic for dealer tables was presented. All but 5 tables are sold for the September show! www.camdencoinclub.com

Low Country Coin Club- Starting its 66th year the Low Country Coin Club has chosen a new board to lead them into the future. Maurice Snook will lead as Club President; Chris Staubes, Vice President; Marc Kosanovich, Treasurer; and Mary Lenda, Secretary. Board Members are: Chris Brenner, Randy Clark, Alex Gilchrist, Lowell Knouff and Scott Van Pelt. Beginning in 2026 all Board Members will serve two-year terms. The club held their annual dinner meeting on December 3rd at the Fleet Reserve Hall in Goose Creek. Approximately 65 members and guests attended. John Tormanen was presented with the Club's Numismatist of the year award. Both a happy and sad presentation, since John will soon be moving to Florida leaving a big hole in the Low Country Club. The next regular club meeting will be January 7 at the Amtrak Station in North Charleston, followed on January 30 – February 1, 2026, with the Low Country Winter Coin Show at the Exchange Park Fairgrounds, Ladson, SC.

Sumter Coin Club - Happy 250 USA! At our June 16th meeting, despite having our lowest attendance for 2026 at only 50, we still increased our rolling 12-month average from 50.5 to 51.5 (due to dropping June 2025's low 38 from the calculation)! Also considering we are now in the heart of vacation season, we were happy just to see new faces and make new friends. SCC president Jeff Goodall provided his presentation "Ladies of Liberty" featuring the models for our iconic silver dollars (Draped Bust, Morgan, Peace) – perfect for our USA=250 celebration. We thank all who consistently attend our monthly meetings, and we hope to see everyone July 21st to kick off part two of 2026! Please visit and follow our Facebook page at "Sumter Coin Club" and contact us at: SumterCoinClub@gmail.com. To the Fun of the Hunt!
