The Jacksonville-Camp Lejeune Coin Club met October 8th at the Chamber of Commerce building with 22 members and one guest present.

The club took a few minutes to remember O T Thompson who recently passed away. O. T. was an ambassador of our great hobby and truly a stalwart of both the JCLC and LCFCCs. Franklin F and C J L shared warm and humorous recollections about OT. David B. won the attendance prize and Marc D. won the 50/50 drawing.

C. J. Lindsey gave on a talk on Christopher Columbus and coinage of the Columbian Exposition. A time for show-and-tell followed and the silent auction commenced shortly after the meeting adjourned. November's meeting will be held on the 12th.

The Lower Cape Fear Coin Club met October 14th at McAlister's Deli 740 South College Road in Wilmington, NC. There were 30 members and three guests present. A time of reflection and remembrance was held for the "last Viking in North Carolina", the late O. T. Thompson. John W. won $10 in the member drawing and Tom K. won $90 in the 50/50 drawing. Churchill H. gave a talk on the Hertford House near Buckingham Palace that houses an extensive collection of coinage and other treasures recovered in the UK. An auction was conducted after the meeting adjourned.

SOUTH CAROLINA

The South Carolina Numismatic Association has recently formed the SCNA College of Integrated Numismatics (C.O.I.N.). SCNA's mission has always been to promote and preserve our great hobby, through awareness and education, both regionally and nationally. This new college meets educational needs in SC and many neighboring States. SCNA C.O.I.N. will provide affordable, one-day classes without the expensive journey to schools outside our region. Classes will commence at our 2025 convention and will continue annually every October. We hope you and your club will consider supporting this program. This college is in its infancy, so expect great things to come! Bill Latour has been appointed as Dean of Education and Stefanie Durham has been appointed as Dean of Admissions. For admission questions, e-mail: durham.stefanie@gmail.com. For course schedules, information, costs, and applications, go to our website, SC-NA.org, and click on the SCNA C.O.I.N logo or contact me at your convenience. Randy Clark Pres SCNA 843.367.0141

Camden SC Coin Club –The Camden Coin & Currency show was held Sept 18-19. We had 706 attendees and it was a successful show. We had 38 kids participate in the treasure hunt program on Saturday alone! We had 13 silver dollar giveaways, and our 50/50 raffle was one of the biggest pots of $368 on Saturday. And our 1 gram of gold giveaway was a highlight too. Our ANA rep Jeff Goodall signed up some new members and with our membership discount gave us a few new members too. Success every way we turned! The SC-NA IPAD entry registration program told us that attendance was from 150 different zip codes, 120 different cities and people came from 9 different states. We also know that 30% of our attendance was greater than 50 miles away and 48% traveled more than 35 miles to come to the show. It doesn't get any better! A shout out to Mike Smith for his unwavering support with the IPADs. We met on Tuesday the 22nd for our monthly meeting and discussed the good, the bad, and the ugly of the show. Working together to make the next show even better! We had an educational program on funny notes, such as the watermelon note, the rainbow note, the poker chip note, etc. We added four new members at the show and 2 showed up at their first meeting. And that is all!

Low Country Coin Club- Another coin show is in the books for Low Country Coin Club. The last weekend in July was the Summer Show. Three days of fun for a record number of guests. Many collectors and some just curious about coins and collectibles. From the time the doors opened Friday until Sunday closed a constant flow of visitors moved along the show floor. Dealers reported strong sales every day. Saturday a scavenger hunt was held for kids. This was also a record setting event for the Low Country Club. Now it's back to the regular twice a month club meeting until the next Coin Show which is scheduled for January 29-31, 2027. www.lowcountrycoinclub.com
