SOUTH CAROLINA

The South Carolina Numismatic Association has recently formed the SCNA College of Integrated Numismatics (C.O.I.N.). SCNA's mission has always been to promote and preserve our great hobby, through awareness and education, both regionally and nationally. This new college meets educational needs in SC and many neighboring States. SCNA C.O.I.N. will provide affordable, one-day classes without the expensive journey to schools outside our region. Classes will commence at our 2025 convention and will continue annually every October. We hope you and your club will consider supporting this program. This college is in its infancy, so expect great things to come! Bill Latour has been appointed as Dean of Education and Stefanie Durham has been appointed as Dean of Admissions. For admission questions, e-mail: durham.stefanie@gmail.com. For course schedules, information, costs, and applications, go to our website, SC-NA.org, and click on the SCNA C.O.I.N logo or contact me at your convenience. Randy Clark Pres SCNA 843.367.0141

Low Country Coin Club- It was a hectic beginning to 2025 for the Low Country Coin Club. At the final meeting for the club in 2024 it was announced their meeting place had been sold. And then ---- A week before the scheduled Winter Coin show Charleston experienced one of the coldest and iciest winter storms in years. But only a week later the Winter Show was open for business on a bright sunny – near 70-degree day January 31-February 2, 2025 the Low Country Coin Club held their annual Winter Coin Show. Dealers took 72 tables around the bourse. A Charleston Shrimp Boil dinner was served for the dealers and show volunteers Friday night. 684 visitors walked through the bourse during the 2½ day show. The highest show attendance on record for the club. Thanks to the helpful officials at North Charleston Recreation Department, the Club found a new home in time to finalize the show plans and begin a new year. Arthur Darr, LWCC's oldest and longest active member, passed away June 15th. He was 95. The club is now in a meeting room inside the Amtrak station, 4565 Gaynor Avenue, North Charleston, SC 29405. Plans are already underway for the Summer Coin Show, July 25 – 27, 2025, again at the Exchange Park Fairgrounds, Ladson, SC 29456. Information about the Club, meetings and future shows are on www.lowcountrycoinclub.com and Facebook: Low Country Coin Club.
