SOUTH CAROLINA

The South Carolina Numismatic Association has recently formed the SCNA College of Integrated Numismatics (C.O.I.N.). SCNA's mission has always been to promote and preserve our great hobby, through awareness and education, both regionally and nationally. This new college meets educational needs in SC and many neighboring States. SCNA C.O.I.N. will provide affordable, one-day classes without the expensive journey to schools outside our region. Classes will commence at our 2025 convention and will continue annually every October. We hope you and your club will consider supporting this program. This college is in its infancy, so expect great things to come! Bill Latour has been appointed as Dean of Education and Stefanie Durham has been appointed as Dean of Admissions. For admission questions, e-mail: durham.stefanie@gmail.com. For course schedules, information, costs, and applications, go to our website, SC-NA.org, and click on the SCNA C.O.I.N logo or contact me at your convenience. Randy Clark Pres SCNA 843.367.0141

Camden SC Coin Club – met on Tuesday July 28th. We had a good summer attendance and met at the Lugoff Nissan conference room. Most of the meeting was about the upcoming Fall show on Sept 18-19. 40 dealers and 80 tables are signed up. The show will still have the hourly silver giveaway and the daily gold giveaway. Also, a 50/50 raffle on both days. A new flyer was presented for review. The main sponsors are the City of Camden, Kershaw County and Lugoff Nissan. The education program was on the Flowing Hair Silver Dollar and was a history of the first mint, mint directors, engravers and production from 1794 to 1804. The club meets the 4th Tuesday of each month at 7 PM in the Lugoff Nissan conference room. We reviewed the prospective costs and projected revenues for our next coin show on Sept 18-19. The new schematic for dealer tables was presented. All but 5 tables are sold for the September show! www.camdencoinclub.com

Low Country Coin Club- Another coin show is in the books for Low Country Coin Club. The last weekend in July was the Summer Show. Three days of fun for a record number of guests. Many collectors and some just curious about coins and collectibles. From the time the doors opened Friday until Sunday closed a constant flow of visitors moved along the show floor. Dealers reported strong sales every day. Saturday a scavenger hunt was held for kids. This was also a record setting event for the Low Country Club. Now it's back to the regular twice a month club meeting until the next Coin Show which is scheduled for January 29-31, 2027. www.lowcountrycoinclub.com

Sumter Coin Club - Sumter Coin Club – As I write this, "COIN SHOW WEEK" is in the air! 25-29 August ANA World's Fair of Money, Pittsburgh! AND our very own, 2026 Annual Sumter Coin and Currency Show, 28-29 August. We expect both shows to be tremendous successes considering the continuing numismatic and bullion market frenzy. While many of our ANA fellow members are in Pittsburgh, yours truly will be behind the ANA table at our Sumter show urging fellow collectors to join our team! On July 21 we welcomed 60 attendees to our club meeting and more recently we hosted 54 at our August 18 meeting. Our 12-month rolling average has now increased to 54 attendees per monthly club meeting. Sumter Coin Club membership is 116 (92 local, 24 dealer-members), just 9 short of our 2026 year-end goal of 125. The Sumter Coin Club Facebook page is just 2 short of having 600 followers at this writing; by the time this is distributed 1 Sept, we should have hit or exceeded that milestone. We also have a basic website at www.sumtercoinclub.org with just the basics as we continue to use FB for current activities and event notifications. Always feel free to visit us (3rd Tue each month) and drop us a note at SumterCoinClub@gmail.com. To the fun of the hunt!
