This past month Kazeem Mustapha accepted the position of equipment operations- graduate assistant at St. John's University in Queen NY. Where he will also be pursuing a masters degree in sports management.

Kazeem has been one of the important members and part of our success since we started. Helping run the football division with his expertise on the game. He played football in High School till later on going to Illinois State University becoming the equipment manager.

We are proud of Kazeem and excited to see what the future holds for him in the long run.

We expanded our partnership with Breinfuel. Athletes under the Breinfuel program can now monetize and network under the program by doing sampling events in stores and networking online.
